LEGACY '82

LAKEVIEW, YOU'VE COME A LONG WAY...

May 14, 1982

Mikely,

My favorite hussy!
I love you so much! I wish
I could go to UT & we could quiver together every night! Please don't target me when you be come rich & famous. At least send my 20 children autographs of your first book! I hope you always remember your life at Lakeview and especially your home in our "wonderful" Band. You really have had a great time - even though it wasn't always as good as we expected!

Thank you for always making me smile!

If I never see
you again
Have a good Life!
Love always,

Lakeview . . . you've come a long way!

Michael -

You're really special to me ... I've spent some of the best times of my senior with ~~you~~ you. I know you'll be successful and happy with your life. Some weekend when I come down to UT and we go out we will still get along perfect. You're so easy to talk to and I really do respect your opinions. Probably because most of them are the same as mine! We had fun at the newspaper banquet & the Band Banquet was the most FUN... Prom was fun but you didn't even dance with me before you left! Please keep me in mind & if you write to me at TAM I promise I'll write back. Call me this summer or come over & swim!

ALMA MATER

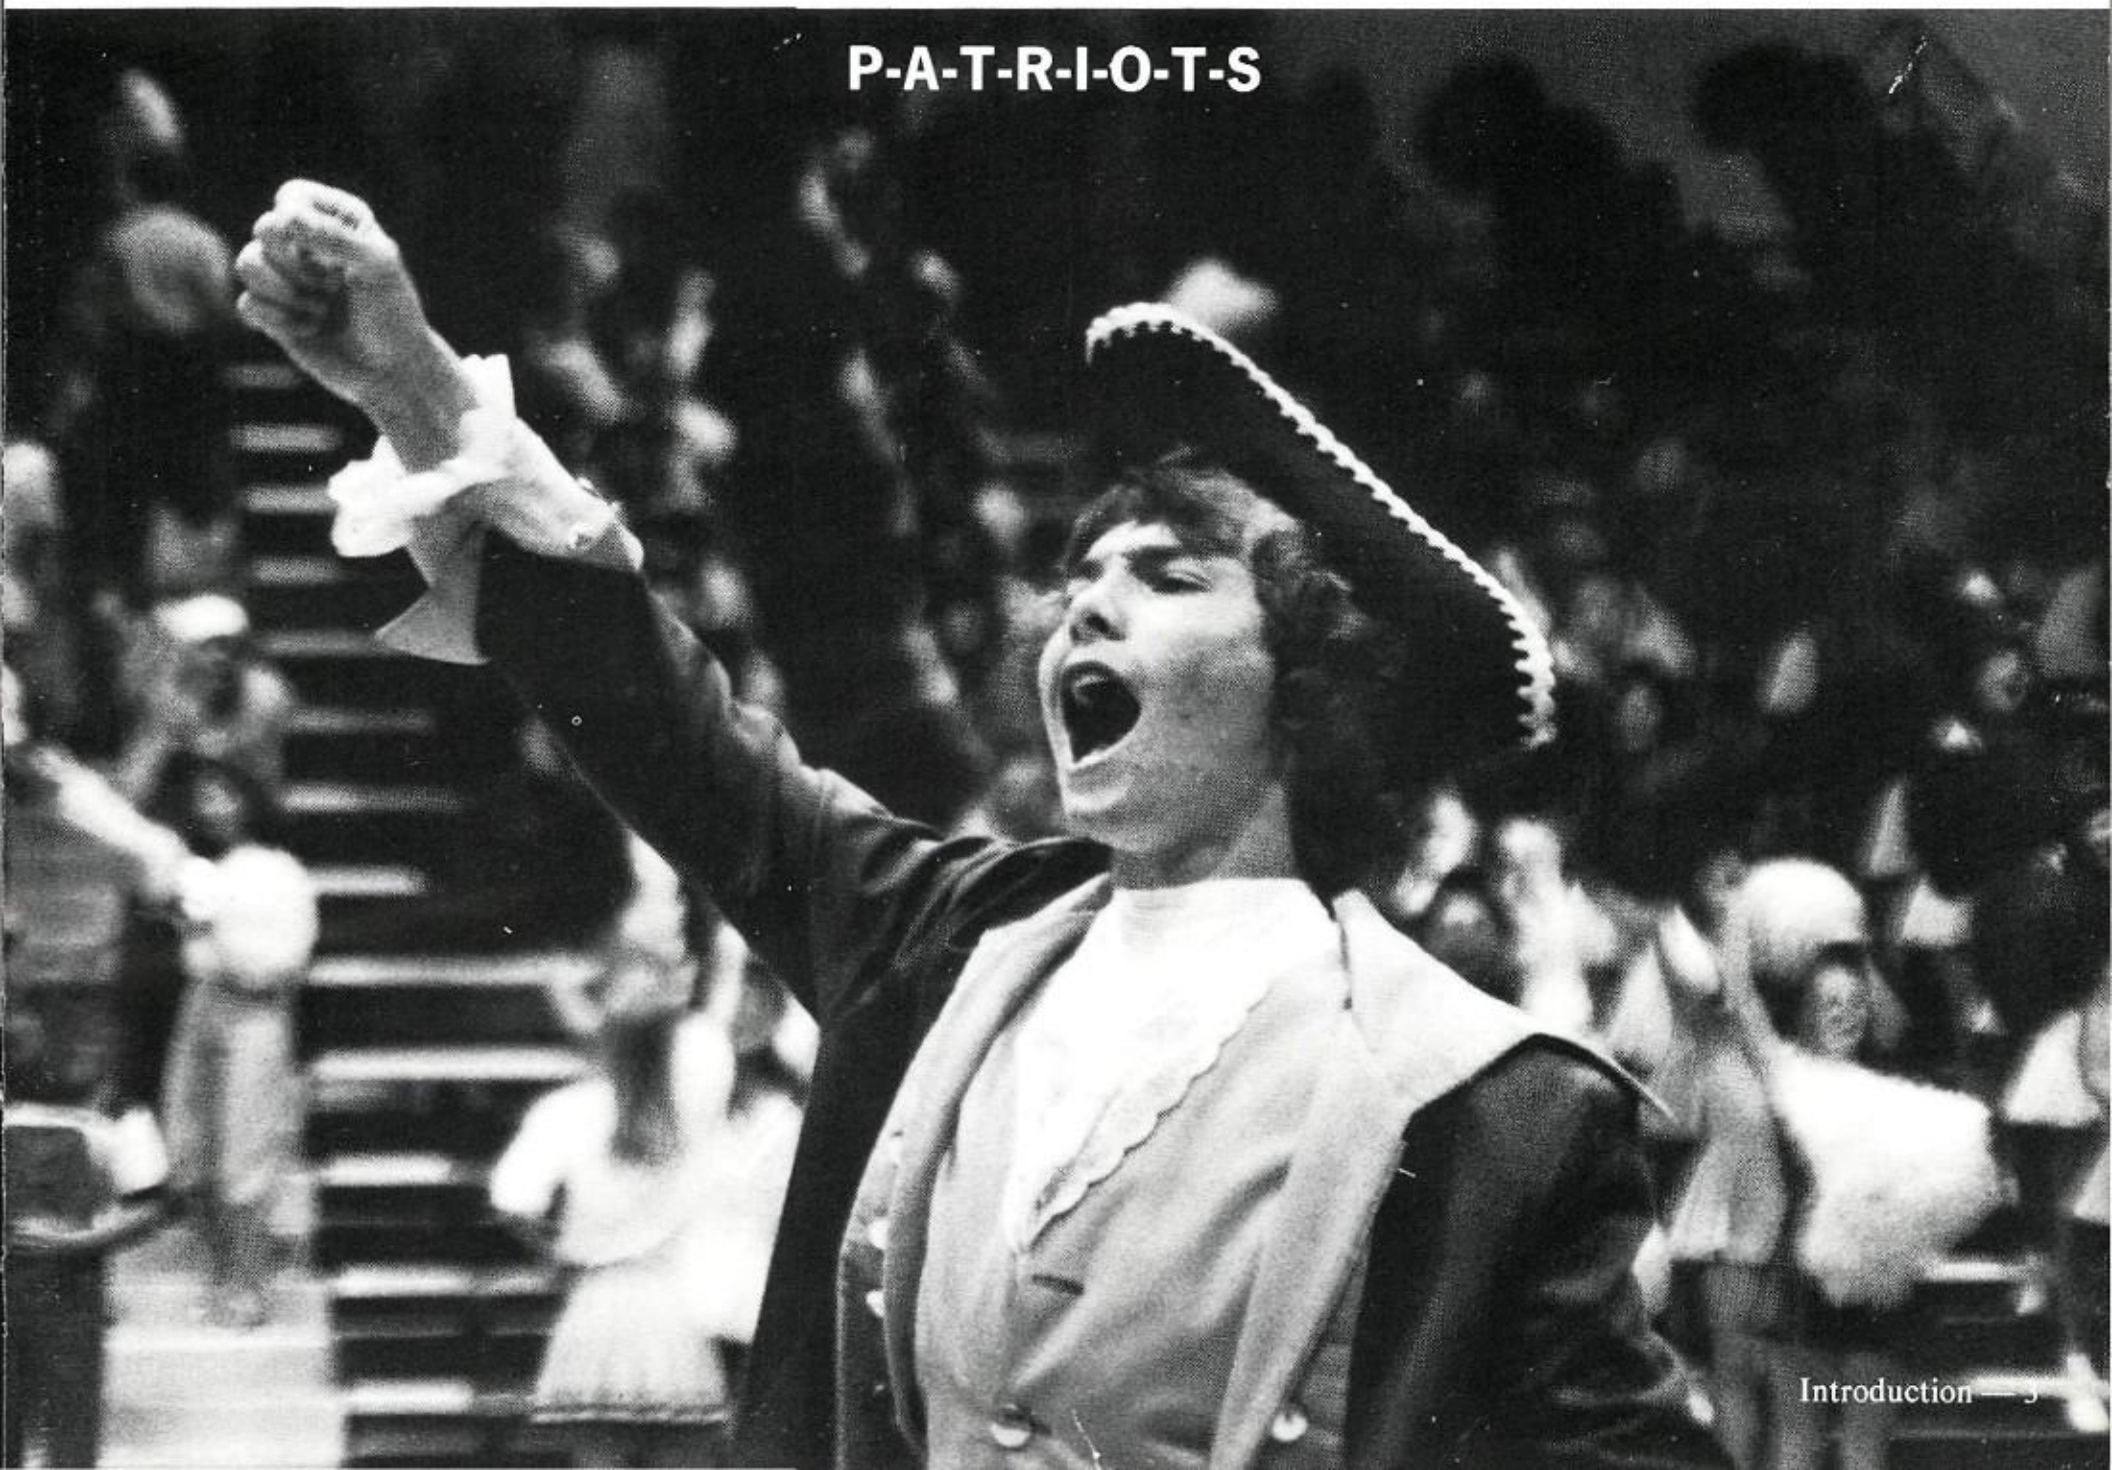

All hail Lakeview High School
Our hat's off to you
We'll ever be loyal to the gold and blue
To thee belongs our love and praise
For all of our high school days.

FIGHT SONG

We'll cheer and cheer for old Lakeview High
Let's shake the thunder down from the sky
We'll score and score, soon we'll be winning more.
We've got that Patriot spirit of the blue and gold.
We'll send our team out there with the rest.
We know those Patriots! They are the best!
We'll win tonight because we'll fight, fight, fight
And cheer the blue and gold to victory!

P-A-T-R-I-O-T-S

Mike,

Hey you fat daddy!
You're cool as hell (I wish you weren't a senior) so you could party down in NHS with us. We'd waste away all of those brains. Have a partying orgy time in your apartment next year.
I'll miss ya. Love ya,

In the beginning there was a dream . . . to make this dream a reality involved three years of hard work and around $6,000,000. The dream became a reality . . . Lakeview Centennial High School.

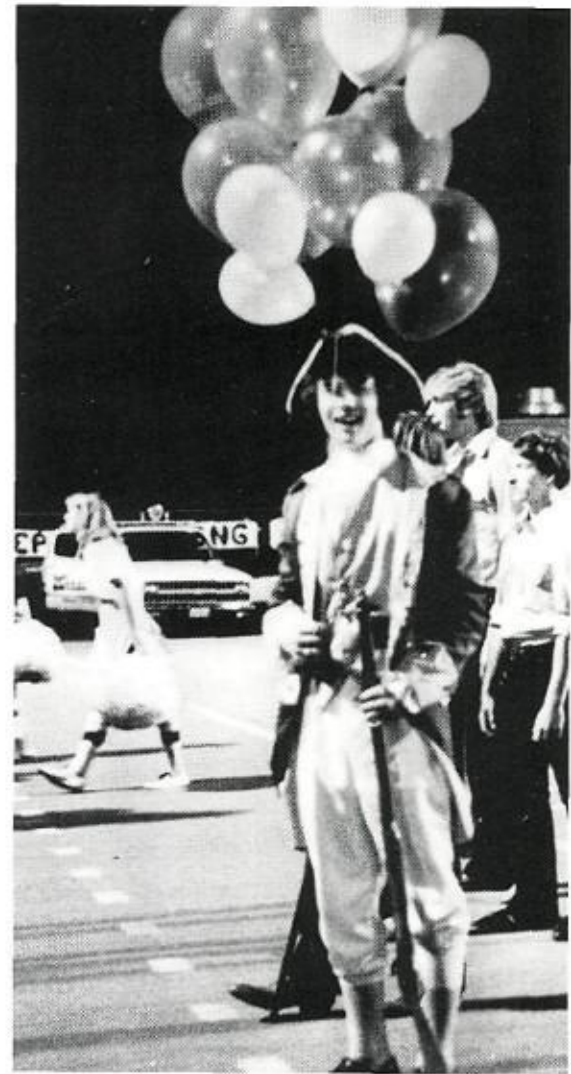

Lakeview opened in 1976 with one principal, Pat Chumley, and two assistant principals, Andy Coleman and Gary Reeves.

The faculty and staff consisted of approximately 57 people and the student population settled at around 1,000 by the end of the school year, consisting of approximately 450 freshmen, 350 sophomores, and 200 juniors. Many rooms were not in use yet and there was no graduating class.

Well Lakeview, you sure have come a long way! This year there is one principal, Pat Chumley, and three assistant principals, Andy Coleman, Gary Rehm, and JoAnn Brooks.

The faculty and staff count has increased from 57 to around 125 and the student population has doubled from 1,000 to 2,000. There are approximately 550 freshmen, 500 sophomores, 400 juniors, and this year, around 450 seniors will graduate. All of the building is in use at one time or another during the day and many of the classrooms are overflowing.

... and Patriot Pride is alive and well at Lakeview. Student and faculty see to it that it stays that way.

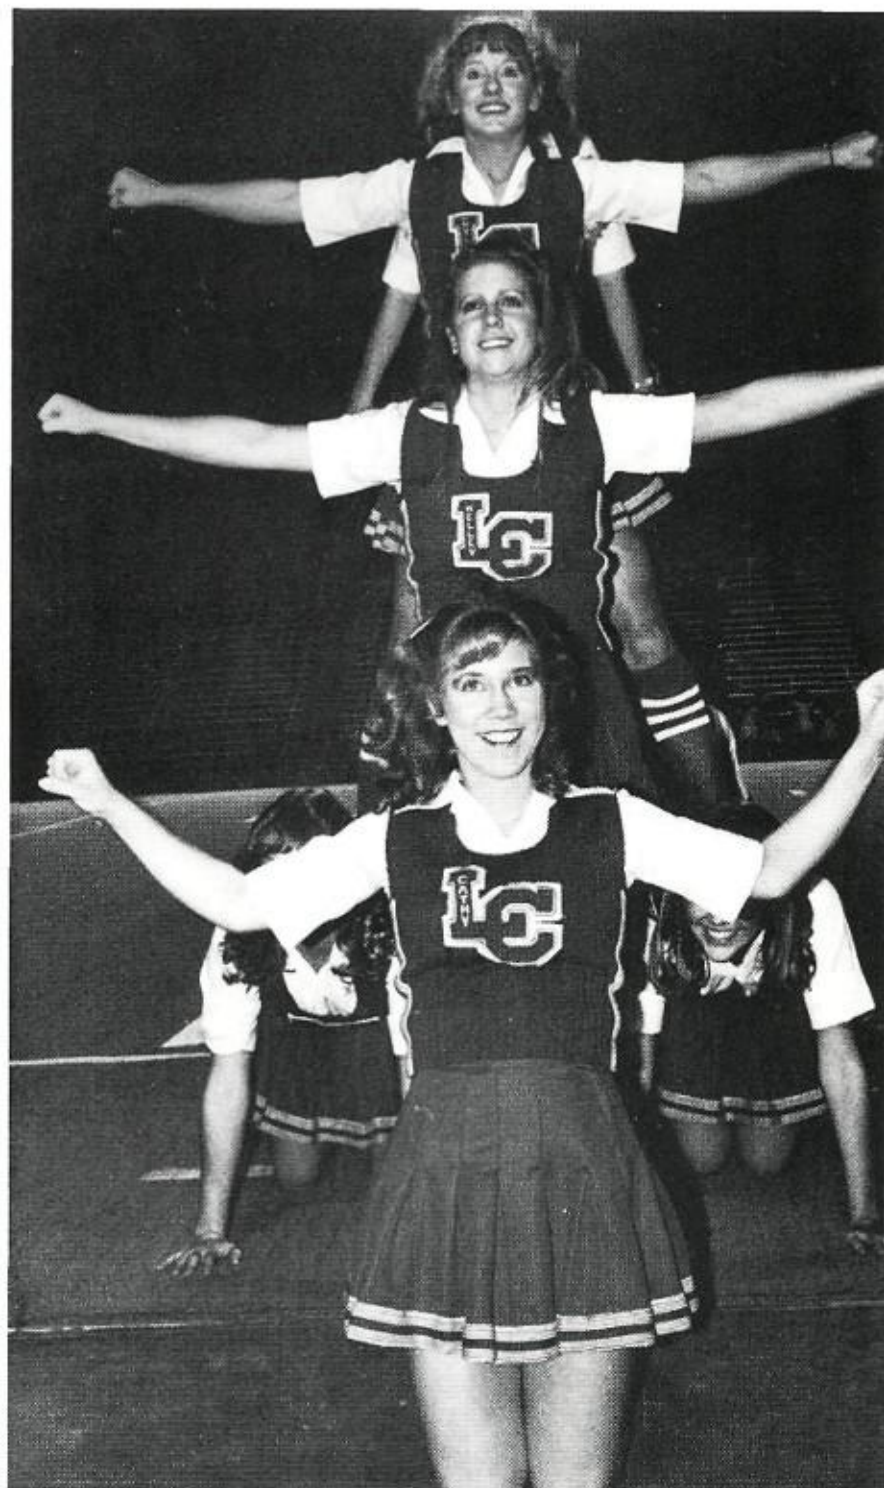

As you glance through this book, think of the things that have been, and are yet to be. Remember the words, the looks, and the fun. Think of the words, looks, and fun that await in the future . . .

Activities

Every student must complete a health form. Mrs. Donihoo checks each one for needed shots.

For those who were uncertain where to go, there was Mrs. Hill to inform them which room to report to on the first day of school.

Juniors, sophomores and freshmen have pictures taken at registration.

Registration, Orientation Signal End of Summer

As summer ended, students anticipated the new school year with mixed emotions. Registration week started with familiar faces mixed with some new, as old and new students returned to prepare for the new school year.

Each class enrolled on a different day with seniors beginning the week on Monday, August 17. The other classes followed consecutively. The counselors, whose work never seems to end, put in long hours enrolling students and explaining their schedules. Principals and office personnel also helped students find their way through the maze of paperwork.

Various students including Student Council officers, Legacy staff members, and Choir officers were recruited to help with parking stickers, identification card and yearbook pictures, and other assorted information.

On Friday all new students were invited to orientation. The cheerleaders lead off the pep rally with some special cheers for the new students followed by a skit showing students how important it is to make their high school days the best. Then Mr. Chumley and Rebecca Ashley, Student Council president, made welcoming speeches inviting the students to get involved.

The Sweethearts and Liberty Dolls performed, as did the Band and Flag Corps. Orientation ended with an invitation for the new students to follow the Student Council officers through a tour of the school.

The band, led by F. J. Schaack, impresses the new freshmen at the orientation pep rally.

With a big smile Scott Johnson proudly portrays the Patriot that new students will learn to respect during their years at Lakeview.

The heat often outlasts the marchers, so Mr. F. J. Schack, director, watches closely for those on which the sun has taken its toll.

Pats Shine at Jubilee

Labor Day, celebrated in the United States and Canada on the first Monday in September, is a legal holiday honoring organized labor.

Garland celebrates every year with a traditional parade through the downtown area. This year it was the world's largest Labor Day parade.

Lakeview, who lead the parade last year, rotated to last position. However, the appearance of the Patriot and cheerleaders on a chauffeur driven limosene captured the spectators' attention. The Sweethearts followed, stopped periodically to perform a dance routine to the music of the Patriot band.

Five Lakeview seniors, Pam Bratcher, Donya Davis, Tamera Glenn, Mary Lynn Mayer and Tracey McBeth competed in the Junior Miss Garland contest Labor Day night. Mary Lynn was a finalist with other Garland girls, for the title. The pageant is sponsored by the Jaycees as part of their annual Jaycee Jubilee.

Although bad weather threatened all weekend and rain forced the pageant indoors, it was still another successful Labor Day celebration in Garland.

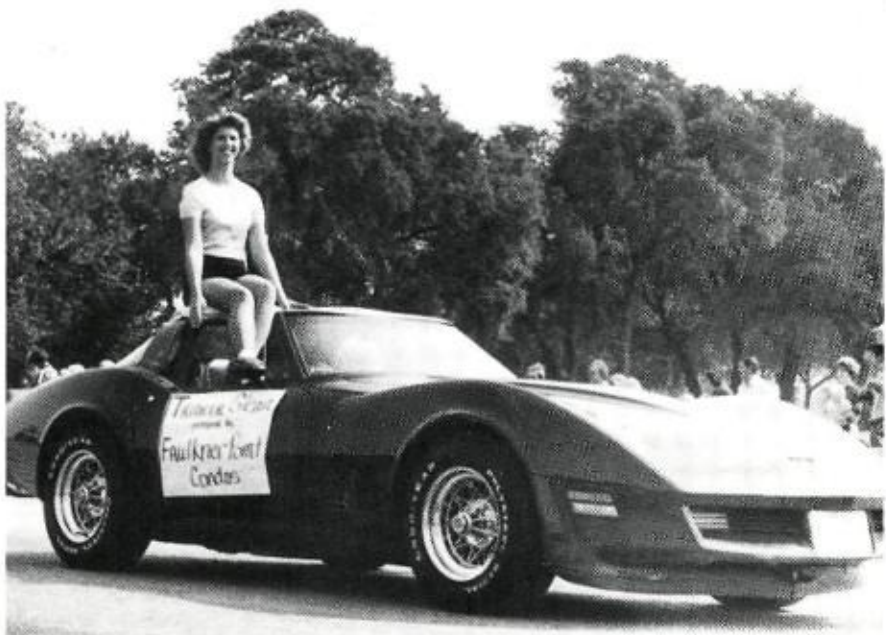

The surprise of the parade was the limosine on which the Varsity cheerleaders and Patriot rode.

Even after a long ride in the world's largest Labor Day Parade, the spirit of the J.V. does not die.

The banner held by Tammy Simpson and Jason Briner marks the beginning of the mighty Patriot band.

Competition was tough in this year's Garland Junior Miss Pageant. Tamera Glenn competed along with four other girls from Lakeview.

The J.V. drill team, the Liberty Dolls, stay in formation after a long march.

The Sweethearts kept smiling even though the parade's path was long and tiring.

Team's Meet in Grid Classic

Traditional roles were switched the night of October 16 as juniors and seniors kicked off in the first annual Powder Puff football game. The girls took the field as football heroes, Minute Maids and boys made up the Cheerleaders and Drill Team, the Heart Throbs.

The juniors defeated the seniors, 12-6, with Lisa Albright scoring both touchdowns for the juniors and Myra Ellis making the seniors only six points.

The game started out as sheer fun, but toward half-time it began to get serious. Many girls forgot they were playing touch not tackle football, and other "hulks" forgot that our school believes in good sportsmanship.

Much of the tension was relieved by the half-time show starring the stunning and vivacious Heart Throbs. Drill Team captain, Gary Haygood, led the georgeous(?) drill team through a hilarious dance routine to the song; "Happy Days Are Here Again."

Although the football game was exciting and well worth watching, most of the eyes in the audience were on the bubbly Varsity and Junior Varsity Cheerleaders. With the help of the Minute Maids, these lovely (?) young spirit raisers not only kept the crowd fired-up but entertained them as well.

The game was a successful fundraiser for both the seniors and the juniors.

Who ever said girls play nicely did not attend the Powder Puff game.

Varsity Cheerleaders, with the help of the Minute Maids, drum up senior spirit after the junior's second touchdown.

It is easy to see how many of the girls ended up with black eyes and bandaged limbs.

Varsity cheerleader Phillip Barth flips over Minute Maids Kim McLaughlin and Cheryl Fore.

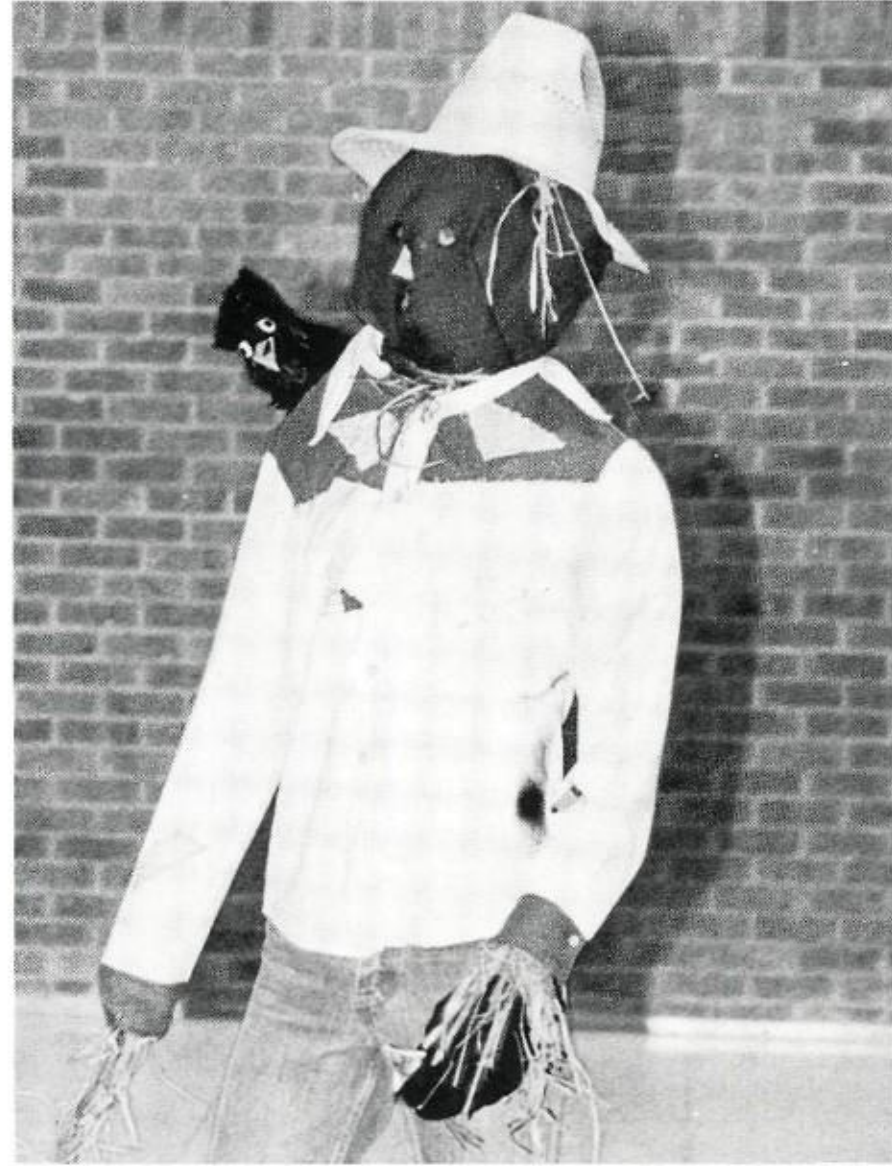

A spontaneous pep rally erupts in the cafeteria on the day of the Powder Puff game.

Heart Throb officers show off their high kick routine during half-time at the Powder Puff.

Gary Haygood gives a preview of his Dracula performance, Kryste Hornbeck and Kelley McGuffey look like two of his victims.

In search of a yellow—brick road, Darrin Lamb, complete with a crow on his shoulder, wins the contest.

Strange Beings Invade for a Day

Everyone loves Halloween and as we grow older we miss the dressing up, and the tricking and treating. We are now left at home giving treats to young goblins.

At Lakeview, however, we still hold on to Halloween traditions. Students were encouraged to dress up and compete in a costume contest second period. Among the costumes that day were spacemen, monsters, punk rockers, and . . . well, things. It was obvious that people involved were showing both their bravery and Patriot Pride. Even those who did not dress up were treated to a visual spectacle that was well worth the day at school.

Missing, however, was the Halloween candy that is usually present. Regardless of the rules, however, students were able to obtain an M&M here, a Jolly Rancher there . . .

A few classrooms were decorated for the Halloween season, and of those that were, it was apparent that spirit prevailed in preparing them. Along with the black and orange was our own blue and gold.

At 3:15 that Friday, October 30, aliens, monsters, and other unimaginables made their way home only to continue the spooking later at the Band's Haunted House. For $1.50, kids were treated to murder, madness, and bits and pieces of horror.

Aliens of every size came to Lakeview for the Halloween contest. After school, Patty Martin awaits her flying saucer to take her home.

"Oh, I wish I was an M & M candy, that is what I'd truly love to be, cause if I was an M & M . . ." Rebecca Ashley masquerades as her favorite candy.

Is this an intern from "General Hospital?" No, it's only Lincoln Thompson ready to go trick or treating.

Even the faculty participated in costume day. Miss Dretha Burris and an unrecognizable Mrs. Linda Thompson get into the spirit of things.

The Race Is on

Through rain and sleet and Texas heat-wave the Patriots make it to school. Most of the juniors and seniors, and a few of the sophomores, join the daily drag race to and from school in their own cars.

The casualties are seen pulled over on the side of Rowlett Road and being handed pink tickets to appear at the court house in downtown Garland. Parking has gone up this year, it now costs 25¢ to join Lakeview Centennial's daily game of bumper cars.

What goes into the parking lot must come out. Right? Wrong. Flat tires, dead batteries, and empty gas tanks dot the horizon at the end of the school day. Sometimes these "sickies" are revived and manage to roll out of the parking lot. Others are merely abandoned, their engines bleached white by the hot Texas sun.

For those poor unfortunates who cannot participate in the parking crunch there are the old stand-bys — parents, buses, bicycles, and feet.

Motorcycles have become increasingly popular every year as gas prices rise. Joe Schwaiger has joined the crowd.

Many underclassmen are picked up by their parents. Parents line up in the front parking lot waiting for the 3:15 bell.

Police are often a worry for those who drive to and from school every day. Casey Reed checks out this squad car.

Some students depend on the bus to get to and from school. Long lines can become a common routine for these students.

The crowded parking lot consists of all kinds, including some old classics.

Dead batteries are a common sight on the parking lot after each school day. Sometimes parents are called to help get cars started.

Pep Rallies Highlight Week

Friday begins with students arriving early to purchase tickets. There is a special feeling in the air enhanced by the weekend and activity schedule. But the special coming excitement is caused primarily by the afternoon pep rally.

Many groups combine to make the pep rally a special event. Enthusiasm and spirit build as the Varsity football team enters to the Patriot Fight Song. Cheerleaders lead the student body in class chants and cheering competitions.

Cheerleaders also perform skits or host contests between the classes. Select groups of the Sweethearts perform. The Liberty Dolls, Flag Corps, Rifle Corps, and Twirlers also share the spotlight on Fridays. Each group has a chance to entertain the students to the music of the Patriot Marching Band.

During football season, the pep rallies soon became the highlight of the week. Everyone looks forward to the special afternoon event which caps off the day.

Sweetheart band routines entertain the freshman and sophomore sections during pep rallies. Kim Johnston flashes a pretty Sweetheart smile.

Phyllis Vank climbs to the top of the Varsity cheerleader formation.

Seniors enthusiastically scream their class chant. Competition between classes sometimes almost lifts the roof off of the gym.

"Displaying Patriot Pride can be hard on your voice," Wayne McShan and Ricky Smith, whisper.

Liberty Dolls add their special flare during pep rally cheers. They are an important part of the spirit at Lakeview.

Senior varsity football players participate in their class chant.

Patriot Pride comes alive

While it is true that Lakeview students constantly show their Patriot Pride, it was most evident during football season, when on Fridays there were special activities that allowed the utmost school spirit. These activities always had a theme, and the clothes called for well represented each theme.

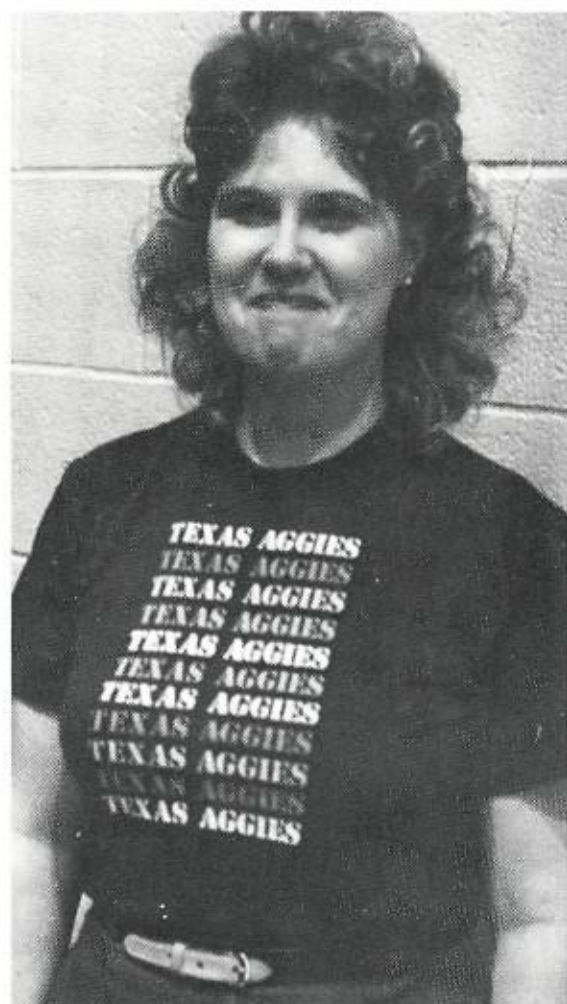

For the Adamson game, ties were in order so that we could "tie them up". Hat day brought us a range from somberos to baseball caps when we "topped Rockwell".

"Outshine the Colonels" was the theme for our game against South Garland, so everyone wore sunglasses.

Crazy socks were donned when we played Newman Smith, and these came in a wide variety of colors and styles. We "rocked North Garland" by wearing rock concert T-shirts.

Overall, however, the main theme for each and every Friday was to wear blue and gold clothes of any sort.

With activities such as these, many students felt crazy, even a little weird. It all shows through though when we see Lakeview students expressing their pride in such dramatic ways.

On "teach Garland a lesson" day everyone wore their favorite college t-shirt, even teachers like Mrs. Hoffman.

Topping off Patriot Pride, Nancy Oglin and Dee Dee McCleskey cheer at the Rockwall pep rally.

Foreigner fans, Lisa Lord and Tom Mack "rock North Garland" on concert t-shirt day.

"Sneak up on South Garland" was a huge success.

Bright colored ties appeared all three lunches during "tie up the Leopards" day. Kelly McGuffey and Ron Watson join in on the spirit.

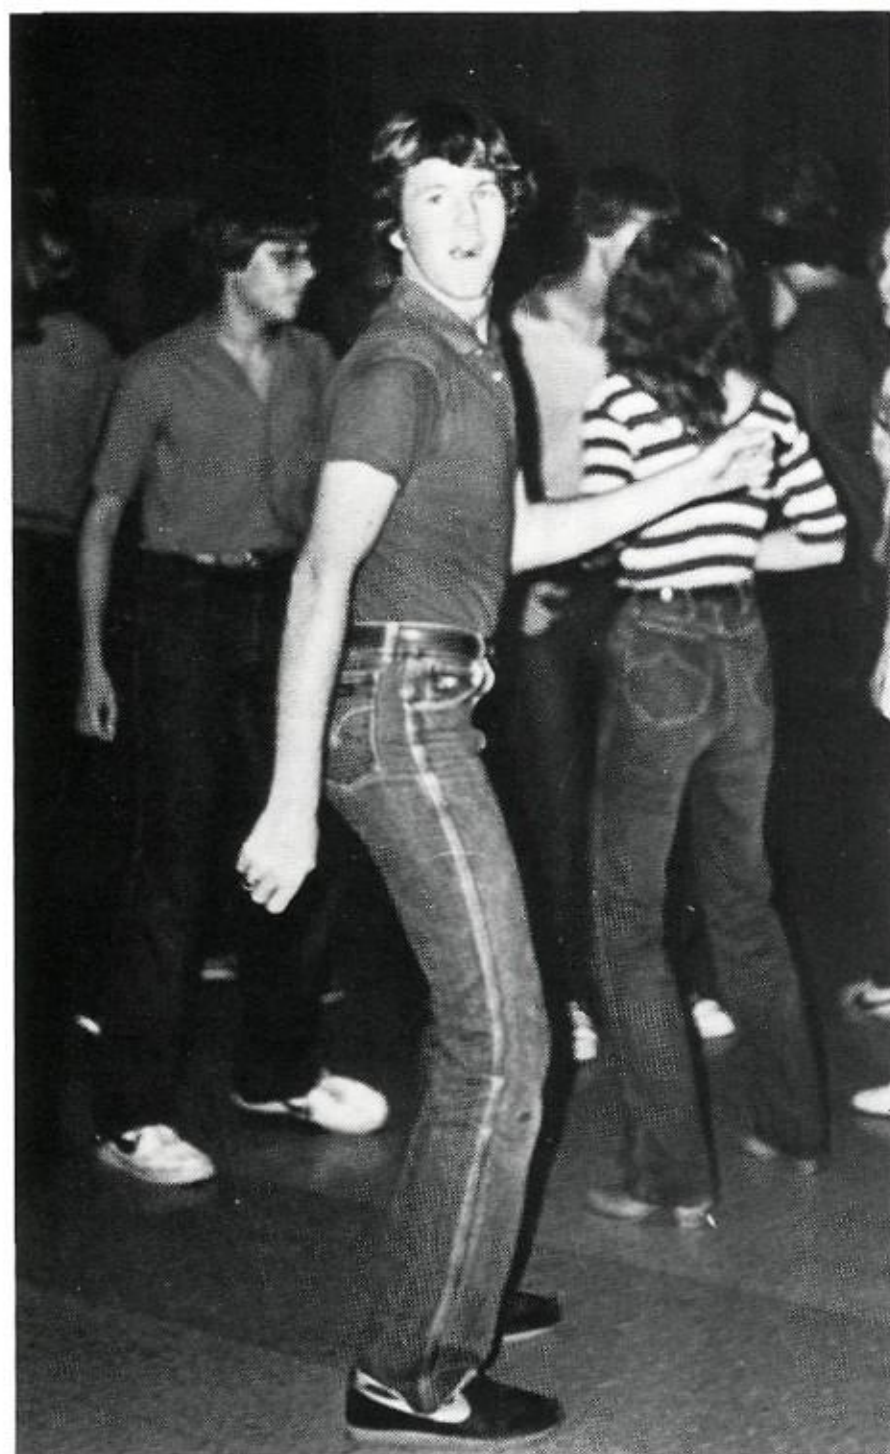

Patriot Scott Johnson, "outshines the Colonels" during a pep rally.

"Out prepping Highland Park" was child's play for Tracy McBeth.

The Cotton-eyed Joe became a favorite at the spirit dances and was often played several times during the night.

Senior James Parish seems to enjoy the dances when he can find enough room to dance.

Rock music was a favorite because everyone could do their own thing.

Pats boogie down at Spirit Dance

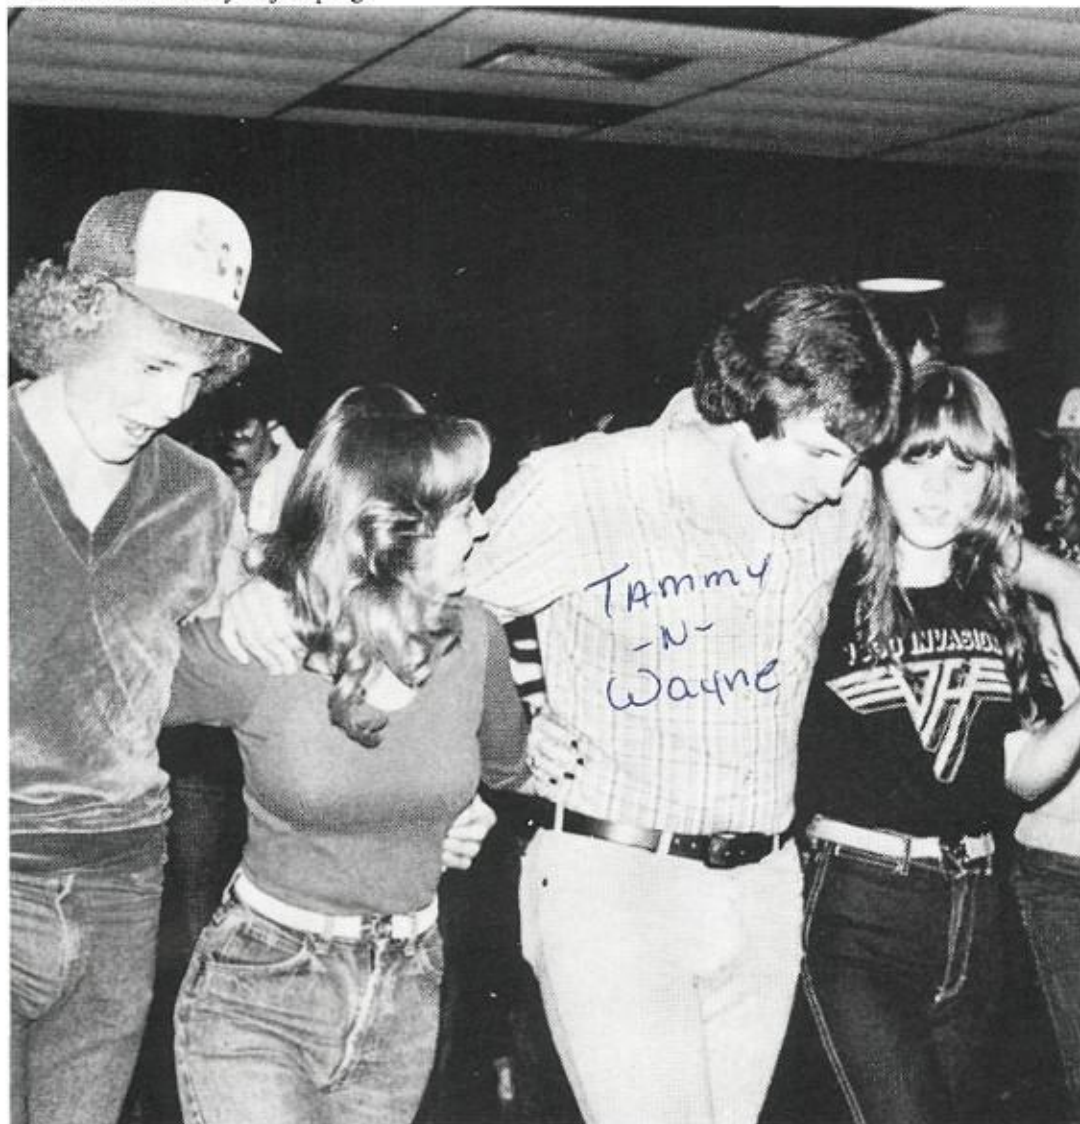

Where do most students go after the football games? Well, if it is a home game, most students head back to school for the spirit dance. Dances were an opportunity for students to meet with their friends at school without having the worries of classes or studies. Dances were also an opportunity to have fun and make new friends without spending much money.

Student Council sponsored the spirit dances which featured popular disc jockeys from the Dallas area. Several dances had contests with recognition given to the best dancers. The music ranged from hard rock to country and western though couples seemed to prefer the slower songs. Others enjoyed rock, punk, and disco where no certain style of dancing prevailed.

The "Cotton-Eyed Joe" turned the cafeteria into a mass of kickin', stompin' and yelling students, and left the impression that country and western music is still a strong favorite.

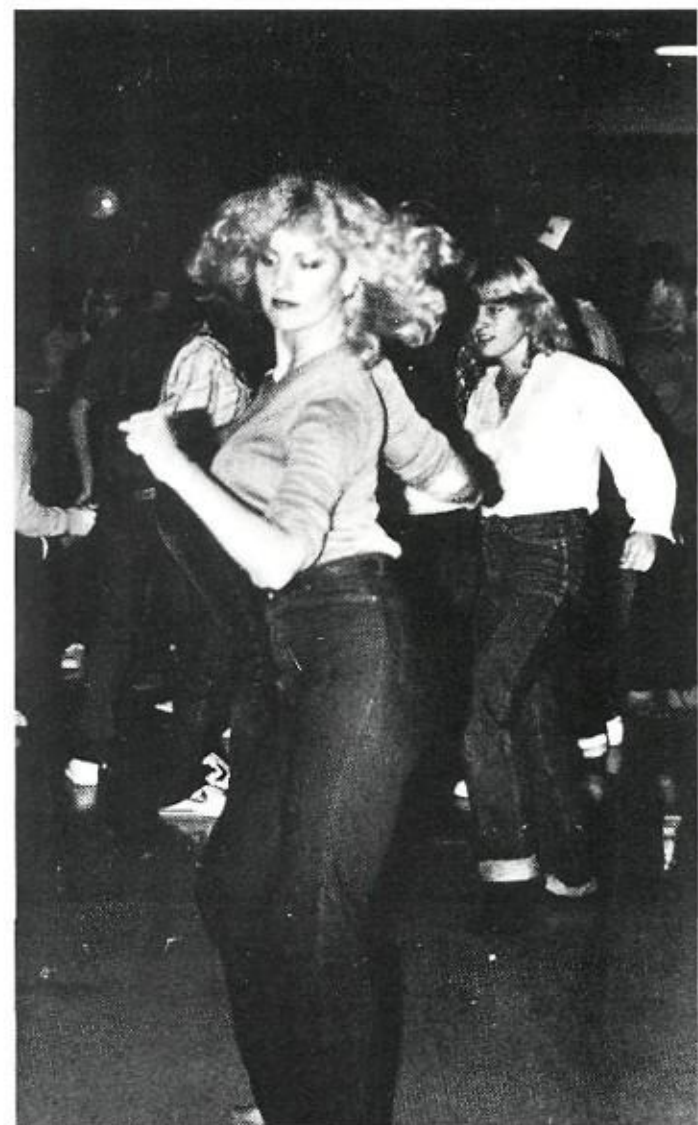

Punk rock and New Wave have become increasingly popular because anyone can learn the steps which consist mostly of jumping.

It does not take a long time for beginners to catch on to the steps of the Cotton-Eyed Joe for there are plenty of people to teach.

Excitement builds during Homecoming

Homecoming week was filled with anticipation as students took part in activities designed to build excitement. The feeling presented by Homecoming is one of mixed emotions, thus the activities were planned to carry on these feelings.

Wednesday was "Warm-up Day", but students wore their warm-ups for more than one reason. Wednesday was also the day chosen to decorate the halls for the hall competition. The theme was "Wild, Wild West".

Thursday students were asked to show their "Overall Patriot Pride" by wearing overalls. That morning, 2nd period, the hall decorations were judged. The winner was announced Friday at the pep rally.

Friday brought home many ex-Lakeview students. Most girls wore Homecoming mums, and the sound of jingling bells could be heard in the halls.

Friday afternoon at the pep rally the class of '81 did their class chant and a few other well-remembered cheers.

The seniors, having won the hall decoration contest, were presented with a giant blue and gold spirit stick.

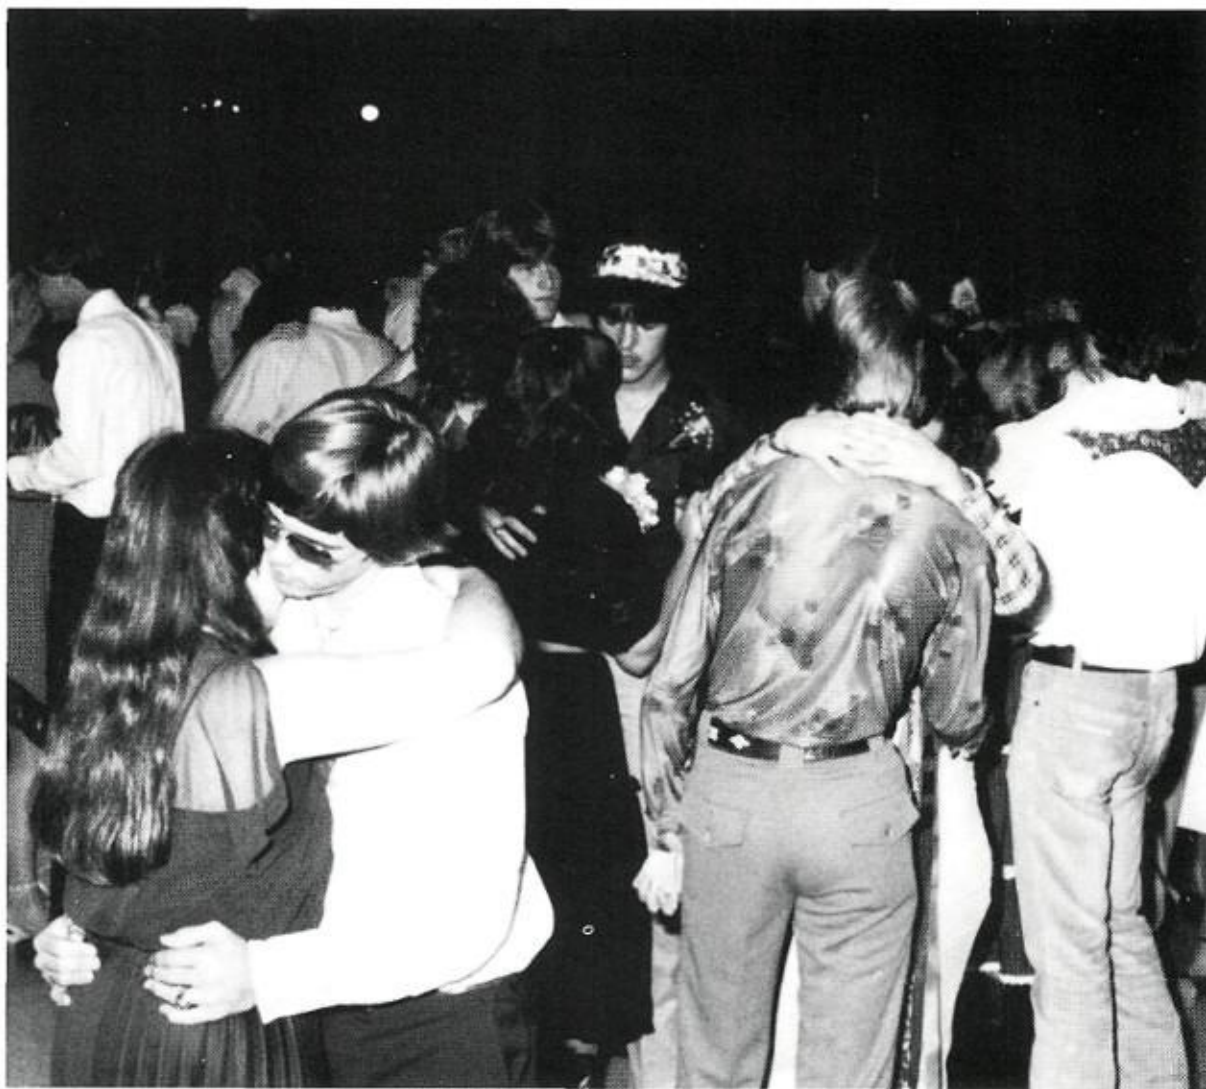

The 1981 Homecoming queen was announced later Friday evening in a pre-game show.

Wild Wild West lives

The big dance honoring all the returning seniors, the Homecoming Queen, and the Homecoming game, was October 17, from 7:30 until 10:30 p.m.

The Queen and her court were presented at the dance with their escorts at 9:00. Queen Cathy Finley and her escort, Dwayne Andrews, danced a spotlight dance. The court and their dates then joined the queen and date for a dance.

The theme for Homecoming was "Wild, Wild West" with cactus, horses, poker chips, etc., dotting the dance floor. Students dressed as cowboys, Indians, and prairie girls.

Many different kids of dancing were enjoyed but slow dancing was by far the most popular.

Though some chose not to dress the theme, Tommy Foley, Kim French, and Cindy Anderson looked like characters out of the wild, wild west.

Many people including Rodney and Becky Newsome had their pictures taken with the help of these colorful characters.

Many people sat in groups and enjoyed the dance with their friends.

Swaying to the music, Diane Moore and Wade King are obviously enjoying each other's company.

Some people, Madelyn Hill and Stan Coats for instance, chose to just sit and talk.

Cathy Finley

Queen, nominees presented at Homecoming dance

One of the oldest high school traditions is electing a senior girl to represent the school as Homecoming Queen, and Lakeview is no exception.

Seniors nominated nine girls this year instead of the usual seven. The nominees were announced at the South Garland pep rally amid tears and hugs. The following week the entire student body voted to determine the 1981 Homecoming Queen, Cathy Finley.

Cathy has been a cheerleader and a band member all four of her high school years. Last year she was initiated into the National Honor Society and served as an officer in the French club. Cathy plans to attend the University of Texas in Austin and major in business.

The other eight Homecoming Queen nominees were Myra Ellis, Kryste Hornbeck, Lisa Mai, Kelley McGuffey, Diane Moore, Nancy Murphy, Sheila Price and Phyllis Vank.

Myra was a nominee for most beautiful during her freshman, sophomore and junior years. She was a freshman cheerleader and a varsity cheerleader her junior and senior years. After graduation Myra plans on going to school and working in the secretarial field.

Kryste received most beautiful when she was a sophomore and again her junior year. She was a Sweetheart, a member of A cappella choir, and loves to sing and dance. After graduation Kryste plans to continue her career in professional modeling.

Sweetheart Lieutenant Lisa Mai was initiated into National Honor Society last year and is an active member of Future Homemakers of America. Lisa enjoys dancing and plans to attend Kilgore College where she wants to try out for the Kilgore Rangerettes. She plans to complete a degree in accounting.

Kelley has been a cheerleader and choir member for the past four years. She was voted Most Beautiful, Most Representative, and served as class president her freshman year. She is a member of the Key Club, Student Council, Thespians, YAC, FBLA, and FCA. After graduation Kelley intends on going to SMU and working for a travel agency.

Diane, Sweetheart lieutenant and council member, enjoys snow skiing and water skiing in her spare time. Diane also plans to go to Kilgore and tryout for the Rangerettes.

Sweetheart lieutenant and Council member, Nancy Murphy is a member of P.E.L.E. She plans on going to Kilgore and trying out for the Rangerettes also.

A fourth candidate for the Kilgore Rangerettes is last year's track queen and this year's Sweetheart captain and council member, Sheila Price. Sheila was a cheerleader her freshman year and a Sweetheart her sophomore, junior, and senior year.

Head cheerleader Phyllis Vank is a top pianist and was chosen most outstanding cheerleader her sophomore and junior years. Phyllis is also a member of the Art Club. She plans to study art and pursue a career in commercial art and advertising after graduation.

Cathy was crowned by last year's Homecoming Queen, Amy Langford McGuffey. All the nominees were escorted by their fathers in the ceremony.

At the dance each of the nominees was announced with their dates and Cathy was ceremoniously seated on her throne. The Queen and her date had a spotlight dance and then the nominees and their dates joined in.

The theme of the dance was "The Wild, Wild West."

Dracula puts the bite on Lakeview

The fall production this year was a real pain in the neck. It was, of course, "Dracula". The plot ran along the age-old lines of a blood-thirsty count falling in love with a mortal woman.

The play was a spine-tingling, suspenseful drama with a couple of comical characters. The sometimes downright cheap thrills and surprising plot twists not only kept the audience jumping, but also proved that "Dracula" was one of the finer productions that has come out of our drama department.

One of the aspects that made this play unusual was that all costumes and sets were done in shades of gray, with splashes of red here and there. The Thespians newly formed parent's club pulled together on this play and helped make the production a success.

Junior Gary Haygood starred in the title role, with seniors Wayne Kimbrough and Eddie Northcutt playing Professor Van Helsing and Doctor Seward, respectfully. Other cast members were Traci Buckner, Lucy Westenra; Krissa Patton, Mina Murray; Steve Chappel, Mr. Westenra; Tracey Dano, Martha Westenra; Brock Bailey, Arthur Homwood; Kirby Pople, Jonathan Harker; Dale Crawford, Renfield; John Claunch, Charles; and Lanne Waller, the servant. Kandy Pople, Susan Teller, and Sonya Medina served as student directors to director Kim Stinson, drama teacher.

The play ran November 19-21 and audience turnout was excellent despite the fact that all the Garland and Dallas area high schools also ran their fall productions at the same time.

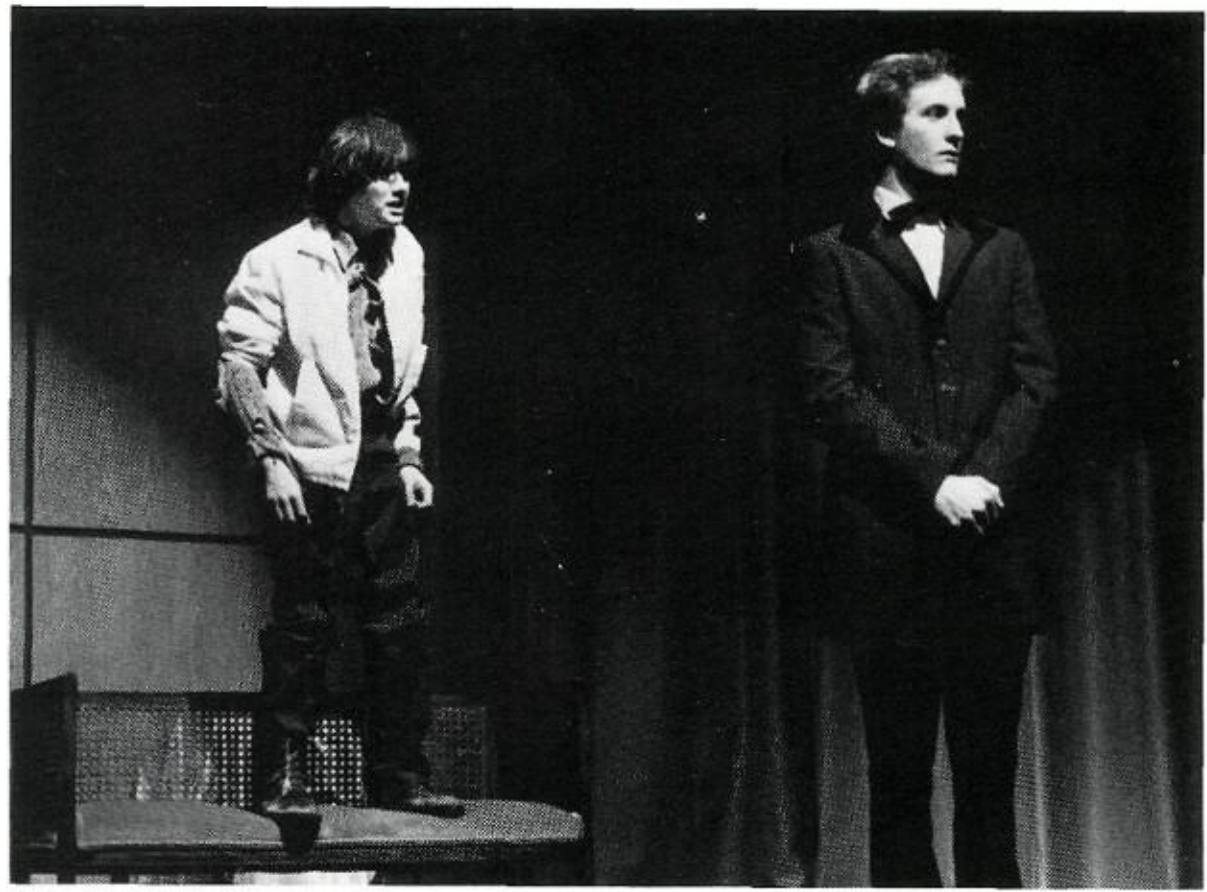

Posing ominously for pictures Martha Westenra (Tracey Dano) and Professor Van Helsing (Wayne Kimbrough) set the mood for "Dracula".

After the discovery of a freshly bitten Lucy Westenra (Traci Buckner), Henry Westenra (Steve Chappel) and wife (Tracey Dano) with Arthur Holmwood (stand in Joe Duetsch) rush out looking for a doctor.

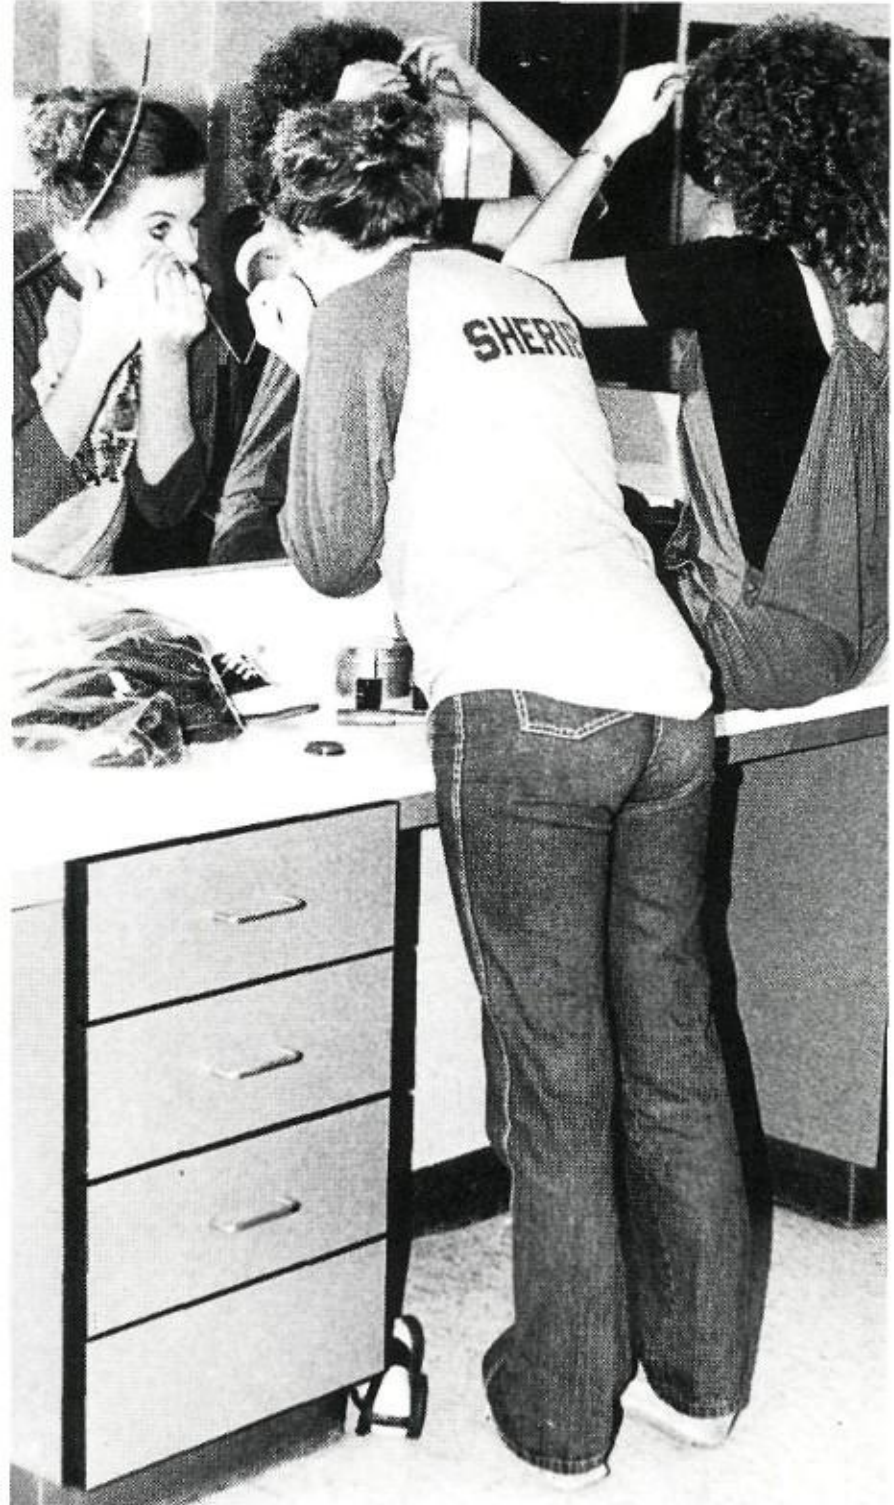

Before snatching a screaming child from the audience, Dracula (Gary Haygood) delivered a spine tingling monologue.

While shaking with fear, Mr. Renfield (Dale Crawford) questions the judgement of Professor Van Helsing (Wayne Kimbrought).

Nervously answering Van Helsing's probing questions, Charles (John Claunch), the butler, is glad that this time the butler did not do it.

Vampire woman, Sherie Hamilton, and maid, Lanne Waller, concentrate on their characters while putting on their make-up.

Reasons for working are many, varied

What do cars, insurance, extra cash, boredom, helping out, and gas have in common? These are just a few of the reasons more and more Lakeview students are going to work.

In taking on a job, a student also takes on a tremendous amount of responsibility. With the full schedule that is acquired, many find themselves with no time to spare. The working student loses a majority of his social life to his job.

Many students arrive in the mornings without their homework, and discover a test first period. Most working students, however, make do with the time they have to get their studies done.

As the school year closes, students will often trade in their after school job for a full time occupation. Then again, that is the working person's life.

From his expression it is easy to see that Kirby Pople enjoys working at Good Times Skate Center.

Mae Miller meets all her customers with a dazzling smile and a cheerful hello.

Service with a smile is Shalyn Skrivanek's motto at her job at Hancock Fabric.

Sometimes jobs may involve some heavy work as shown by Donna Gosset.

After school jobs at local grocery stores are an easy way to earn money. Kroger employee Kevin Thompson even smiles once in a while on his job.

Fast, courteous service will help you keep your job longer as demonstrated by the polite Tim Fortenberry.

Believing that he is the fastest checker in the west, Clint Simpson, whizzes another customer through the checkout line.

Though students worked hard on the Vocational Fair some still found time to clown around. Pictured here is Teresa Wavrusa.

Getting ahead with Vo-Ed

"Get ahead with Vo-Ed" was the slogan for the Vocational Fair February 7-13 in the Commons Area. The fair was held to inform students on what vocational programs are available next year.

Each VOE (Vocational Office Education) program had its own booth complete with pictures, slides, equipment, nurses, clowns, etc.

Health Education's booth took people's blood pressure, Office Education had an IBM 60 computer typewriter that could memorize what had just been typed, and Building Trades had pictures of the house that they are building.

All applicants for a VOE course received a free button with the VOE motto: "Get ahead with Vo-Ed."

Booths were designed specifically to catch students' attention, this one seemed to do the trick.

Many teachers became interested in the Vocational Fair and could be found in the Commons Area during their off periods examining the booths.

Counselors and teachers take time out to chat a bit.

Looking at these adorable faces, no one could refuse signing up for Auto Paint and Body.

Freedom, Lakeview's music ensemble.

Marge Starks, Christi Carr, Bebe Straw, and Shalyn Skrivanek sing "Looks Like We Made It."

Rickey Smith and Mark Green sing "Louisiana Saturday Night."

"The dream never dies"

"The dream never dies" was the theme of Freedom's spring show. The show was April 2 in the auditorium.

Freedom is the pride of Lakeview's choral department. These talented young musicians are chosen, by auditions only, from the members of the A'Cappella Choir.

Freedom performs for many civic organizations, such as Lion's Club, Rotary Club, Dallas Irish Association Fair, and for the Centennial Homes Christmas party each year. This year they also performed for the Texas A&M Mother's Club Spring Style Show.

Although all of the members of Freedom were new to the group this year, they are talented and have been very successful.

Other music in the show ranged from Country and Western to Rock and Disco. Included were "I Love a Rainy Night", "On the Road Again", "San Antonio Rose", "9 to 5", "I've Got the Music in Me", "Looks Like We Made It", "California Dreaming", "Java Jive", "Working for the Weekend", "The Boy From New York City", and "How Deep Is Your Love."

Choral Director Marty White felt that the show was a great success adding, "The kids worked hard so it was good." She also had a big turnout, but by the looks of the crowds at other Freedom performances the crowd was never a worry.

Freedom had great expectations for their spring show which consisted of popular new music and some older favorites.

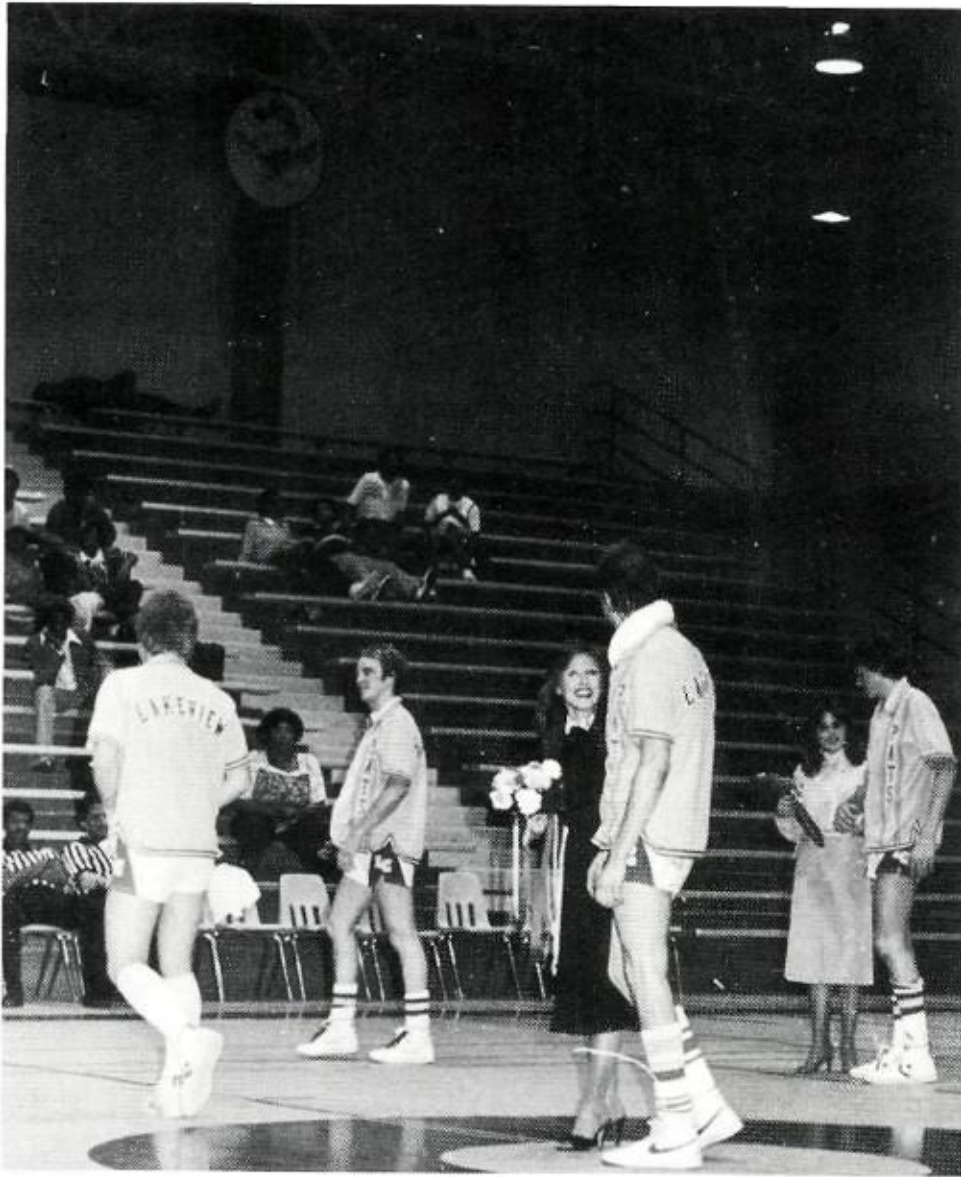

Many members of Freedom sang solos. Included in these were "Queen of Hearts" and "When I Die" by Sandy Victor; "Stop Draggin' My Heart Around" by Christi Carr; "Louisiana Saturday Night" by Rickey Smith and Mark Green and "Why Do Fools Fall in Love" by Marge Starks.

Team chooses Vank

1981-82 Basketball Queen, Phyllis Vank, was announced at the Wilmer-Hutchins game's halftime ceremony Friday, February 19. The other two nominees for this honor were Diane Moore and Misty Pickering. The nominees were named Friday morning and presented that evening.

"Doc" Montgomery presented the three girls and crowned the Queen. A senior, Phyllis Vank is Varsity Head Cheerleader. Also a senior, Diane Moore is a Sweetheart Lieutenant and junior Misty Pickering is on the Girls' Varsity Volleyball Team.

The Basketball Queen and nominees are chosen and voted on by the basketball team.

The basketball queen nominees and their escorts leave the court after Phyllis Vank was crowned.

Nominee, Diane Moore.

Nominee, Misty Pickering.

Yankee Doodle

Girls do it again

As football season turned into basketball season and as basketball season ended, the Sweethearts began to concentrate on their 1982 Spring Show.

The theme of the show was "Yankee Doodle Girls" and like last year's show "On The Road Again," it proved to be a huge success.

The show featured many dance routines and skits in which all of the girls enthusiastically participated.

Sweetheart officers, members of the Golden Hearts, managers, squad leaders, squads and Liberty Doll officers all worked hard on acts and costumes; and the routines were performed to hits such as "Destroyer," "Rock and Roll High School," "Shake It Up," and "Lady."

An especially memorable routine was performed by the Sweetheart officers. They performed to "America" by Neil Diamond and the girls wore white solotards (unitards) with red, white and blue chiffon butterfly wings. Performed February 26 and 27 in the auditorium, the show was a huge success. The show was even more special to the girls as it was the last time for them to all perform together.

Moods bright at Christmas time

Christmas is one of the most memorable times at Lakeview. The student body and staff are in the best of moods, anticipating the up-coming holiday vacation. Traditions, such as the decoration of the Christmas tree in the Commons-Area and the caroling done by the foreign language clubs, give students a feeling of belonging.

As the last week of school draws near, final plans are made for parties and gifts are exchanged among friends. The child comes out in all of us when Santa Claus visits Lakeview to pose for pictures.

The last few days bring the traditional competition among the second period classes, all of them striving to win the door-decorating contest, which would enable them to have a party.

Christmas in Texas was one of the most popular themes in this year's door-decorating contest.

This year students were able to have their pictures made with Santa Claus. Kim Carroll and Christy McCollum pose with Santa Claus (Coach Goodell) for their picture of holiday cheer.

Downtown Garland's square is a beautiful site during Christmas.

F.B.L.A. brought underprivileged children in to meet Santa Claus during the holidays.

Twas the week before Christmas and all through the school, decorated doors could be found in abundance.

Ingenious students spare time

With school and the extracurricular activities, one would think there was never any time left over for students to do their "own thing." But, the ingenious student can also find time to do the things he wants.

The things a person does in his spare time is quite often as unique as the person who is taking part in it. Spare time is usually more than a fun thing. More often it expresses the deeper, inside person that is involved.

Many people find fun in the latest video games, whereas others are content to sit at home and sew, or perhaps play a game such as "Dungeons and Dragons." Roller skating has gained popularity for those in that frame of mind, and even horseback riding has become more commonly seen.

For some, a simple stroll in the woods will suffice, movies and plays are getting a greater turnout from those who enjoy sitting back in a chair to enjoy the action, mystery, or romance of another world.

Leisure time is not a luxury, it is a necessity most of us could not do without.

Anna and Michelle Negri enjoy playing pool in their spare time.

Most students attend the spirit dances. Paul Newman and Lisa Stone took time out for a slow dance.

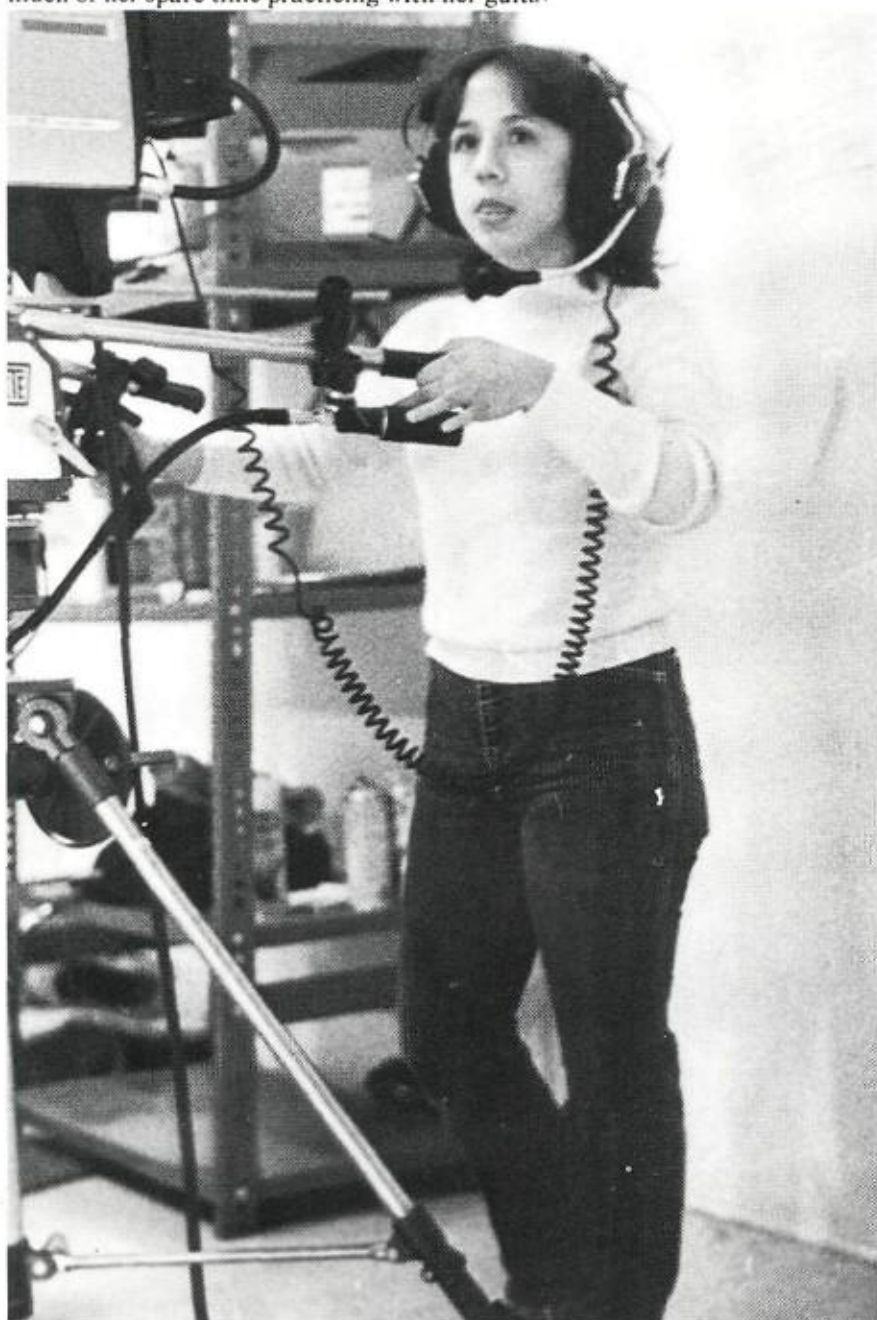

Music is a favorite pastime of many students. Here, Jean Przyborowsky play her piano.

Debby Marable, a member of Freedom, spends much of her spare time practicing with her guitar

Rubik's cubes were an all-time favorite. Even the size of the cube did not make the solving any easier.

Television interests people of all ages, but Juanita Ocanas seems to prefer the opposite side of the screen.

James Parrish uses his extra time to develop his swimming skills.

Students step out in preppy attire

Students have pushed their old clothes to the backs of their closets, and stepped out this year in preppy attire. Knickers and pleated skirts made a comeback along with personalized sweaters, knee socks, penny loafers and pumps.

Even the male gender chose to dress up, and could be found in western or polo shirts. As usual, every Friday students wore their favorite jeans, whether they were Wranglers, Levi's, Jordache or Calvin Kleins.

With any get together, activity or party, music could be found. Both country and rock were popular, with some punk still heard. Some of the favorite country stations were KSCS, KPLX and KIX, who throughout the year gave away tickets to the best Country and Western concerts. Popular rock stations such as Eagle 97 and Q102 supported Pat Benatar, the Rolling Stones and Journey, when they came to Dallas.

Spare time was filled with trying to solve the Rubik's cube. In every class, at break, lunch or after, students played with these colorful cubes that were sold by the DECA club. Exclamations were given out by those who found difficulty with the cube, while some students whizzed through the puzzle in minutes.

Where was everyone's weekend spent? Chili's and Judge Roy Bean's proved to be favorite places to eat, along with almost every pizza spot in town. At midnight many students went to the "Rocky Horror Show."

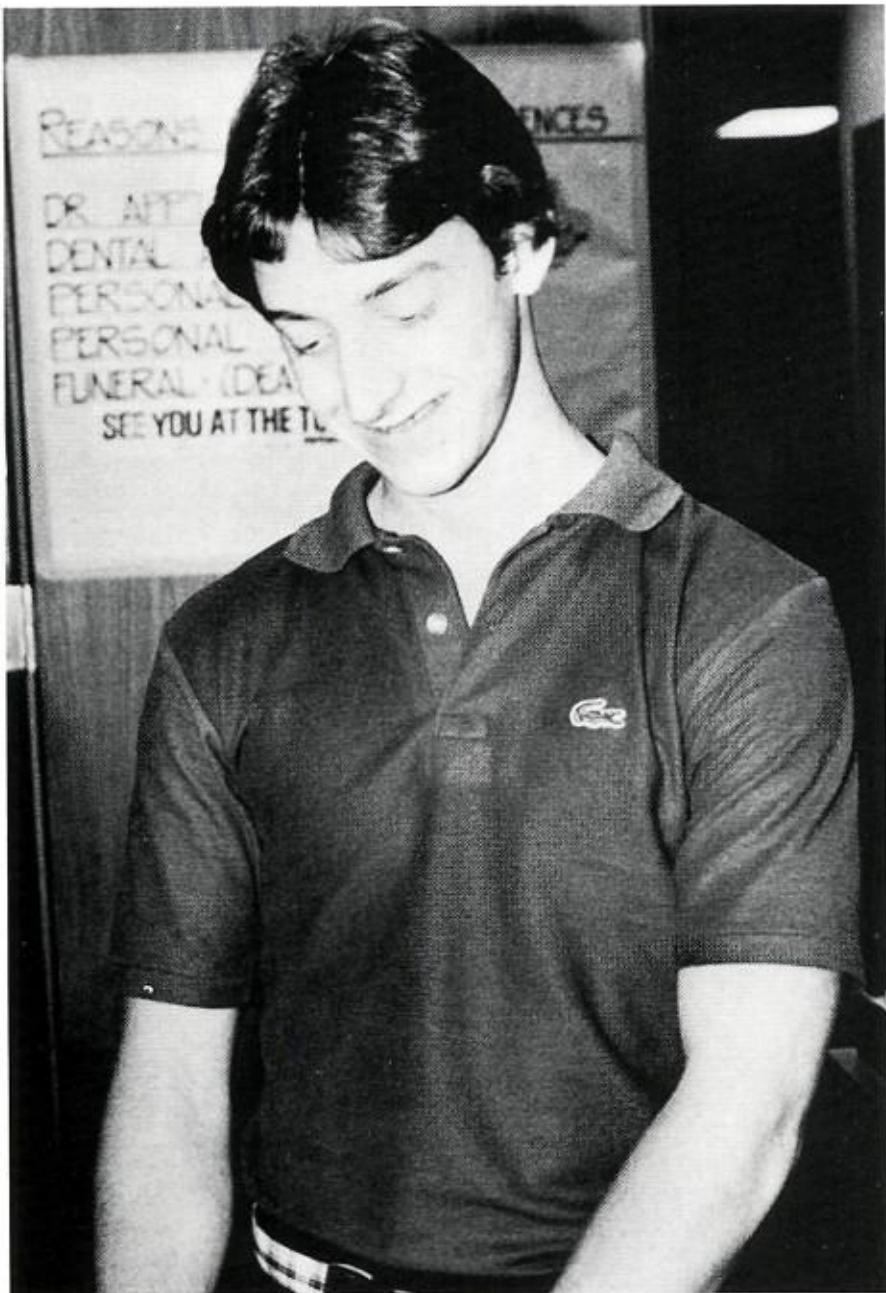

Dressed in one of the most popular styles, Lisa Stone proudly wears her rock t-shirt and jeans.

Knickers are the latest in preppy attire. Here, Nanette Blue shows she is up with the trend.

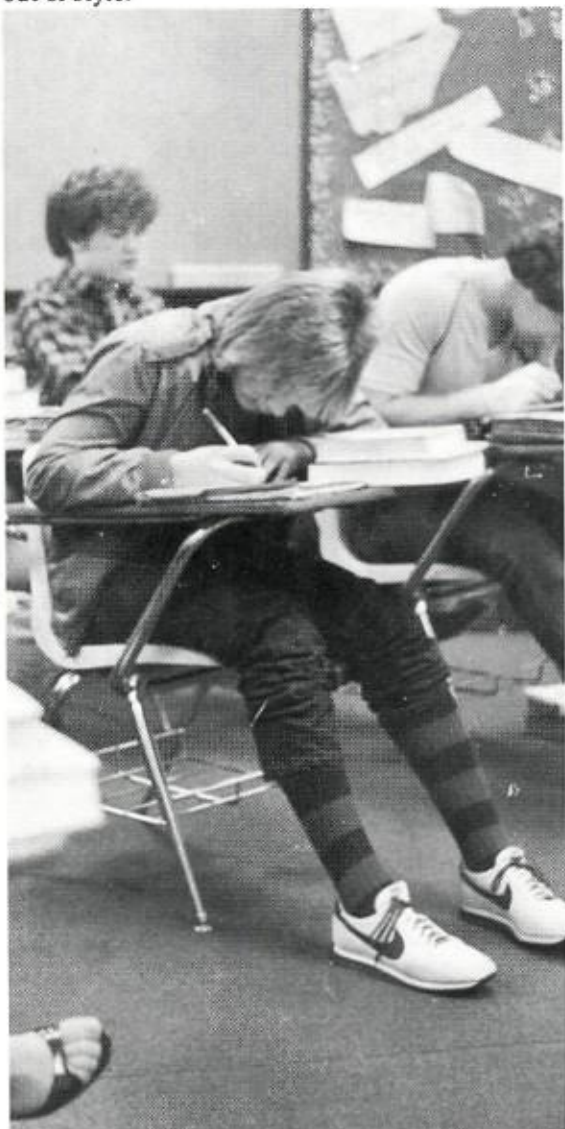

Not only alligators decorated shirts this year. Foxes, dragons and armadillos were seen too, as Mary Cater displays.

Izods and Polos have become increasingly popular. Jay Dyal proves he is never out of style.

Dressed in her finest, Kelly Hardick shows that dressing up does not hurt.

Punk rock has influenced trends in many ways. Paul Neumann's outfits have ranged from original to bizarre.

Five teachers model some "trends of the future" for a pep rally.

Nanetté wants to be happy

"No, No musical" was a chorus that was frequently heard last year. This year the chorus changed to "No, No Nanette," the name and title song of the 1982 musical.

"No, No Nanette" is about a cowardly bible publisher, Jimmy Smith, who just wants to be happy. The only way he can reach this goal is to spend money. Unfortunately his wife, a shrewd prude, refuses to spend a dime. Jimmy runs into three lovely "ladies" who convince him that they would love to spend his money.

The fun really begins when the "ladies", Jimmy, his wife, niece, lawyer, lawyer's wife and nephew end up at "Chickadee" cottage for a hilariously mixed-up weekend.

The stress on dancing was stronger in this musical than in past productions. The songs were snappy and happy and easy to hum along with.

Fun-loving Lucille (Marge Starks) shows Sue a fancy step or two during the finale.

Cast members of "No, No Nannette" ham it up for pictures. Here we see the three "Happies" (Kelley McGuffey, Jill Pidgeon, Krissa Patton), Tom (Dale Brasel), Sue (Shalyn Skrivane) and Nanette (Shari White).

Peachy Nanette motors down to the beach to take a dip.

Part of "No, No Nanette's" success belonged to the twinkle-toed chorus members who appeared in every major song and dance number.

Some of the better known songs from "No, No Nanette" include "I Want To Be Happy" and "Tea For Tea."

Principle characters were Rickey Smith as Jimmy Smith, Shalyn Skrivanek as Sue Smith, Shari White as Nanette, Mark Green as Billy Early, Marge Starks as Lucille Early, Dale Brasel as Tom, Kirsten Afseth as Pauline the maid, Krissa Patton as Flora, Kelley McGuffey as Betty, and Jill Pidgeon as Winnie.

Kim Stinson and Marty White directed this show with help from student director Tracey Buckner, and pianist Julian Reed.

Upset over her husband's fooling around, Sue sings and dances her blues away.

Many surprises as invitations go out

Friday, January 29, during second period, a small band of students ceremoniously paraded up and down the halls delivering "Legacy" invitations to a few select students whom had been voted by their peers as being representatives of "Patriot Pride."

Legacy Editor Donya Davis, and associate editors Millie Cline, Darla Herd, Anna Lacy and Tami Moore, delivered these glad tidings with photographers standing close by to quickly snap the shocked expressions, cheerful laughs, tearful smiles, jumps for joy and just plain disbelief.

The invitations simply stated that the student was nominated for an award. No one knew what he or she was nominated for until the ceremony, before the dance, February 13.

Tears and excitement overflow as Kirsten Afseth, Leslie Cavanaugh, Shawna Binford, and Donnie Watson receive their invitations.

Expressions of disbelief cover Shari White's and Karen Hazelwood's faces.

Legacy invitations have become a routine with previous nominee Bobby White.

Receiving an invitation is more exciting for Cathy Finley than being in class.

"Are you sure you mean me?" asks Judy Vank.

Mike Wicbold calmly accepts his invitation.

Musical entertainment was provided by Freedom at the awards presentation.

Waiting in line for couples' pictures proved to be one of the main events of the night.

Homecoming queen, Cathy Finley, was presented at the Legacy Honors Presentation.

"On my honor . . .," Assistant principal Andy Coleman repeated as emcee at the award presentation.

Presentation Ball successful

At 6:00 o'clock February 13 the Legacy Awards Presentation began. All the nominees were announced by class rank and in alphabetical order. Mr. Coleman was the emcee again this year, and proved to be entertaining once more. The stage set the atmosphere for the night, with oriental pagodas, fans and a gong. The awards were announced in class order beginning with Freshmen and ending with Mr. and Miss. Lakeview representing the whole school.

After the awards-presentation drew to a close, couples followed the winners to the Centennial Ball. Conversation centered around the results of the presentation. The cafeteria was transformed into an oriental garden with fans and lanterns hanging from the ceiling. Couples entered through a moongate and the dance floor could only be reached by crossing an oriental bridge. Refreshments went along with the atmosphere and laughter filled the cafeteria as the predictions of the fortune cookies were exchanged.

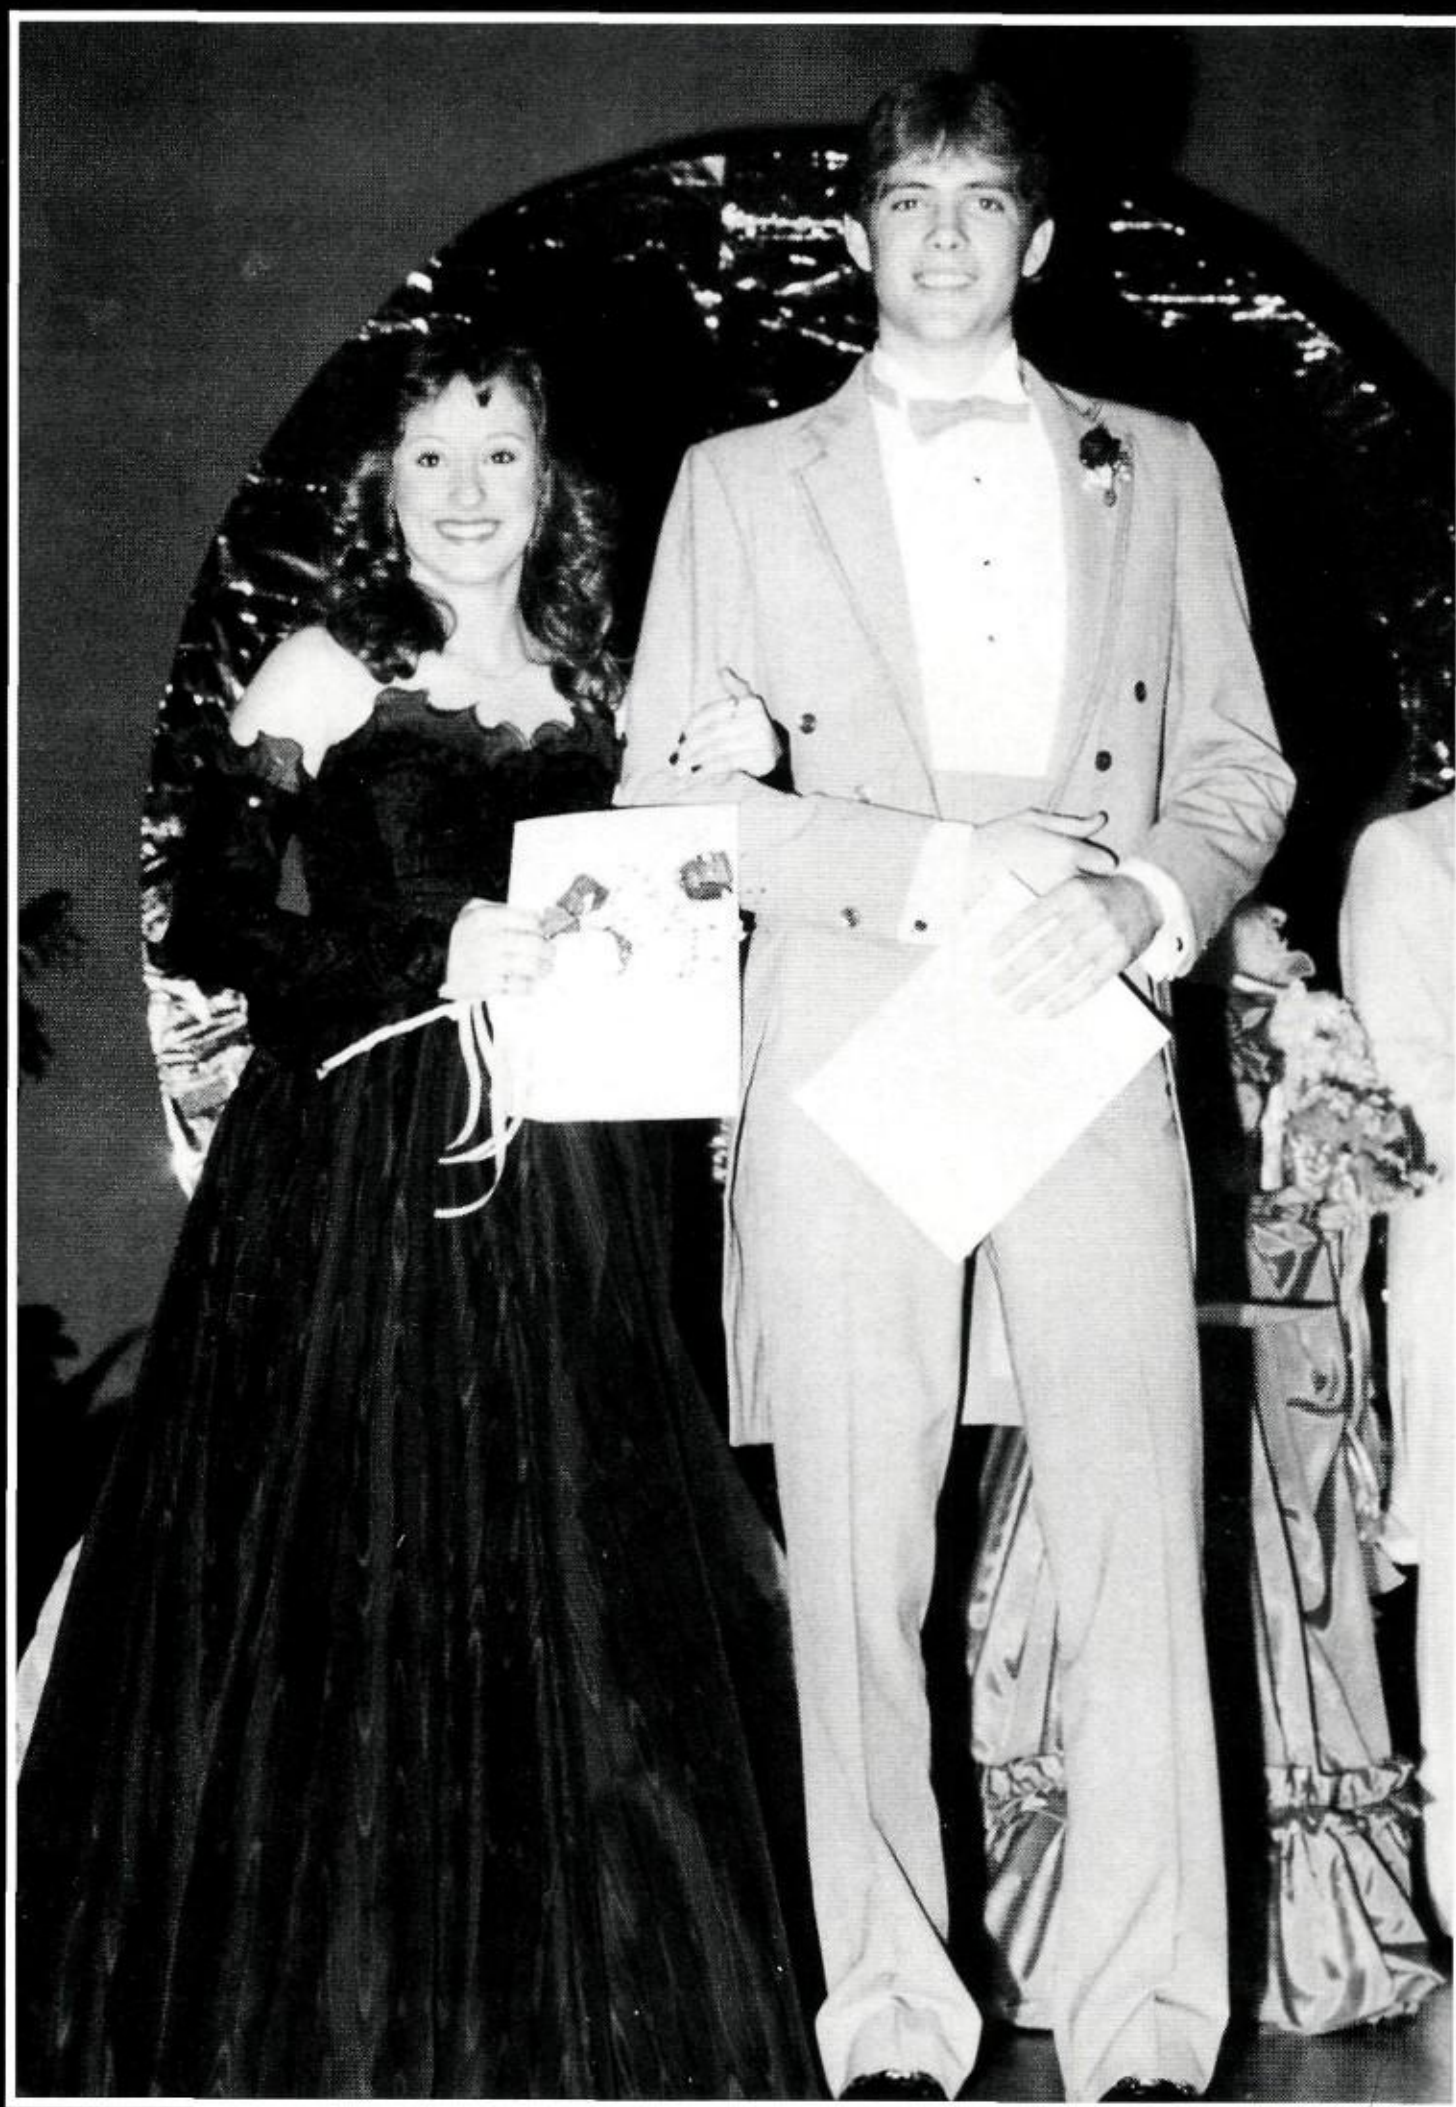

Junior class favorites, Debbie Plaster and Randy Purkins leave the stage after receiving their award.

Posing for their picture, Shawn Sadler and Melinda Hockins wait patiently.

Junior class has another successful year

For the third consecutive year, the junior class has once again managed to have a successful year.

The class was under the leadership of sponsors Mrs. Gail Price and Coach Stan Dunavant. Class officers were Christine Cooper (president), Laura Smith (vice-president), Lisa Albright (secretary), Jane Terrell (treasurer) and Sheryl Cooper (reporter).

Juniors had some successful fund raisers and activities this year. "We needed more people involved, though," said secretary Lisa Albright. Although the junior class needed more class involvement, this was not apparent when the time to make the final cash count arrived.

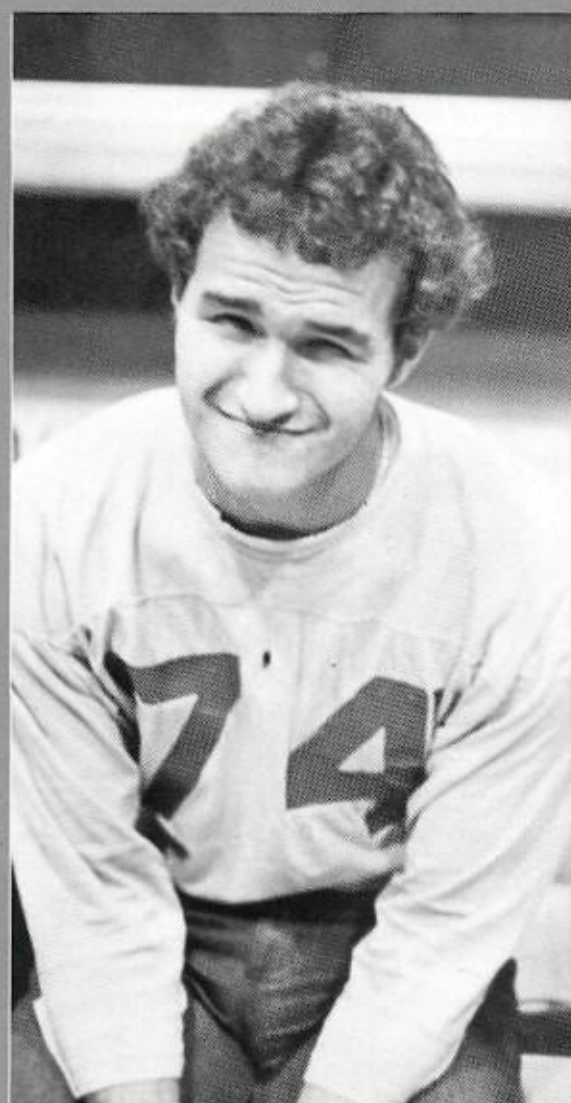

The first activity and fund raiser was the powder puff game. Although the juniors came into the game as underdogs, they won the game with ease. With two touchdowns in their favor, they beat the seniors by a score of 12-6.

Those who did not want to make that extra trip to the florist to buy Homecoming flowers had their problems solved by the junior class. For the second year in a row, the class of '83 sold Homecoming mums and boutonnieres, which proved to be a financial success.

With these fund raisers, along with others, the class of '83's senior prom will make their high school memories worthwhile.

Students at Lakeview were shocked early one Monday morning to find their school had been struck by a mini tornado which knocked out a wall of the girl's gym.

The storms that hit Lakeview not only knocked a hole in the gym wall, but thoroughly demolished the tennis courts.

Successful Sophomores plan for the future

Success is one word many people used to describe the sophomore class this year. All involved were willing to do their share — and they did. With Mr. Poore as the class sponsor, they were assured of good end results before the year even began.

The class officers played a major role in the success story. Wendy Whittle, who serves as treasurer, said she thought the class of '82 was "the best yet to walk Lakeview's halls". Christi Carr was re-elected president after holding the office last year. Amy Christian, a newcomer, served as vice-president. Tami Tauzin, who divided her time between Sweethearts and her office, took her job as secretary seriously and never neglected her duties. Serving as historian, Carie Wilcox exerted herself 100% to fulfill her duties. The parents club was excited at the beginning of the year and carried that enthusiasm through to the end.

To solve money problems and to make the senior prom a night to remember, the sophomores sold wall calendars, and the parents conducted a bake sale. Their efforts made the money raising job a little easier.

Goals for unity and more class support were accomplished. Wendy Whittle stressed the importance of good attendance at class meetings, though she also said that it was mostly the same students in attendance. "We really appreciate their loyalty," she added.

Freshmen set high goals

Four years seemed an eternity to a freshman. Even so, soon graduation time is here and the confusion of preparing for the senior prom is close at hand.

The freshman class was off to a good start this year, under the leadership of sponsors Kathy Koch and Leann Drum. Another asset to the freshman class was it's class officers, Brent Theis (president), Dean Sams (vice-president), Lisa Lucky (secretary), Jennifer Bridwell (treasurer), and Sherry McNamara (historian).

According to Coach Koch the goal of the freshman was "to work for the best Senior prom yet."

LAKEVIEW CENTENNIAL

Future Teachers of America, sponsored by Fern Roberson, chose a teacher of the month throughout the school year. These teachers were chosen on the basis of their teaching ability, concern for students, and school spirit. Through them, many departments are represented.

Mrs. Betty Lowrance, language arts department head, teaches both Sophomore and Senior English, Creative Writing and Bible as Literature. Mrs. Joyce Lacy teaches Computer Math, Trigonometry, Analytic Geometry, and sponsors Mu Alpha Theta.

Business education department head Martha Willis is co-sponsor of Future Business Leaders of America and teaches Shorthand. Mr. Tom Poore, Co-ordinator of Student Activities, teaches History. He also sponsors the Sophomore Class. Mrs. Roberson teaches Special Education.

Ms. Glenna Newkirk is adviser for both the Legacy and the Sentinel. She also teaches the journalism courses. Mrs. Laurel Dingrando teaches Chemistry and Physics and Mr. Terry Dillard teaches Biology.

Student Council sponsor Miss Dretha Burris teaches Sociology. Mrs. Gail Price sponsors the Junior Class and teaches Fundamentals of Free Enterprise and History. Mrs. Price was named FTA Teacher of the Year.

Perhaps the feelings of all of these teachers concerning their profession can be summed up by Mrs. Lacy. "It is very enjoyable working with young people." She said, "They are alive and vivacious — they keep me young."

"When young people are nice," she added, "They are the nicest people on earth to be with."

The Principal Patriots

Principal Pat Chumley and Assistant Principals Andy Coleman, Gary Rehm, and JoAnn Brooks are the chief administrators of Lakeview Centennial High School. They work together to promote the famous Patriot Pride that has earned Lakeview a good reputation in the Garland community.

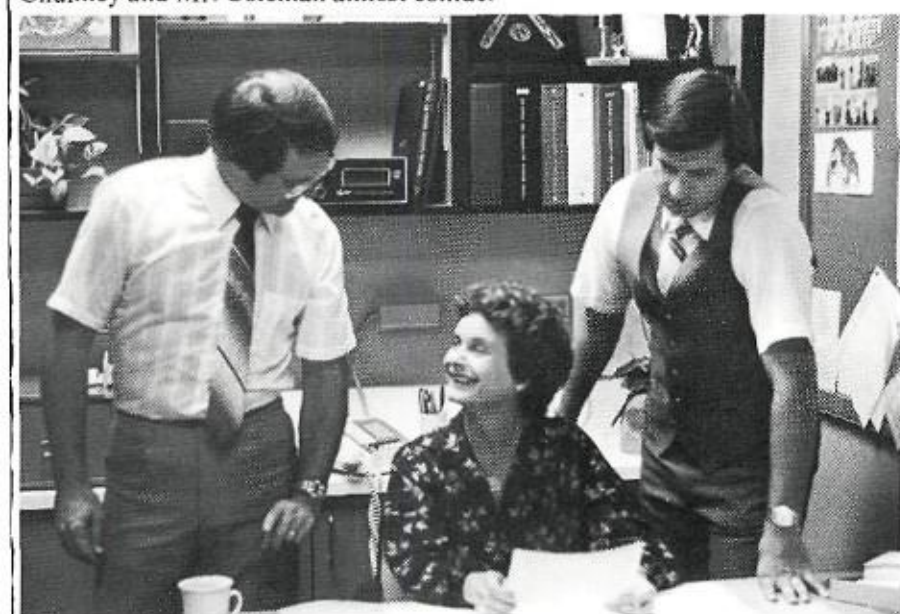

This reputation, however, has been the result of other factors, also: their interest and concern for students as individuals, their work towards providing the best education possible, and making Lakeview's heritage something to be proud of.

In addition, they encourage students to do the best they can during their high school years by participating in some of the many and various sports, clubs, and organizations that Lakeview has to offer, while keeping up their grades and citizenship. Due to their concern, many students have a bright future to look forward to.

The office is an extremely busy place. Here Mr. Chumley and Mr. Coleman almost collide.

The Assistant Principals spend much of their time discussing issues together.

Doyle Ryals
Building Engineer

Mary Pearson
Cafeteria Manager

They kept things going

Doyle Ryals, one of Lakeview's most familiar faces, has been with the school since its beginning. He worked as a maintenance man for three years and has just completed his third year as Building Engineer. As such, Doyle has various responsibilities.

First, he is in charge of the custodial crew which is responsible for keeping Lakeview in shape. Second, whenever the Auditorium, Gymnasium or Little Theater is used, Doyle makes sure that everything runs smoothly. And third, when a club, organization, or even an individual needs help, he is always willing to lend a hand.

Thus, Doyle is the man behind the scenes who makes the scenes come alive.

Mary Pearson, a new staff member of Lakeview, has just finished her first year as Cafeteria Manager. She works closely with YAC (Youth Advisory Council) and enjoys showing them how the cafeteria is run.

As a manager, she is concerned with providing nutritious, low-cost meals. Her responsibilities include supervising five service lines and a salad bar, managing a food budget, and ordering enough food for hundreds of students. Mrs. Pearson has a busy schedule which involves ordering donuts for break, supplying enough hot food to last through three lunches, and cleaning up for the next day.

As a result of both her organization and the hard work of her fellow employees, we have an enjoyable 30 minute break in our schedules.

Out Organizations

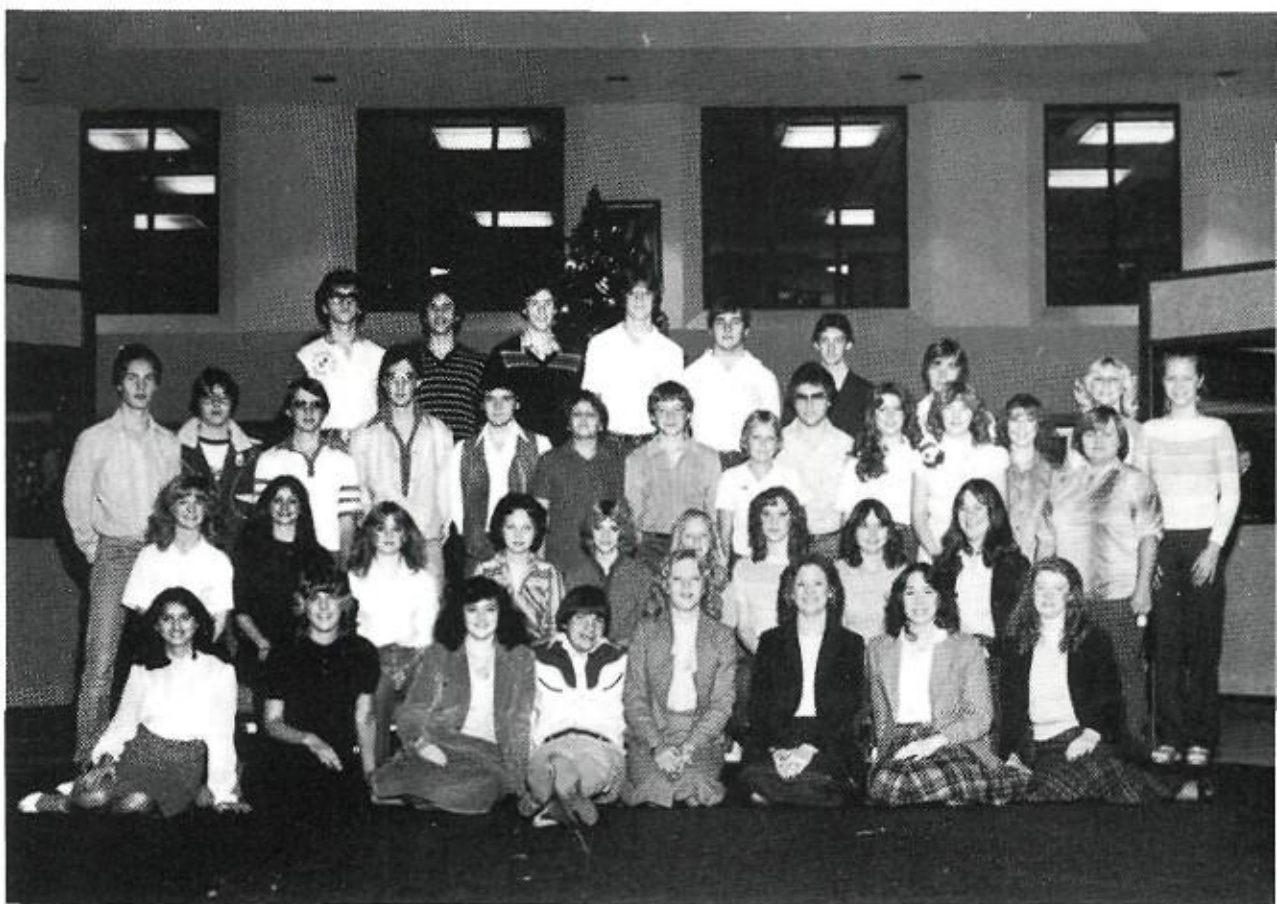

Responsible for everything

"Responsible for everything" is how members of the Student Council define this organization.

This year with the help of sponsor Dretha Burris Student Council's main goal was to help promote school spirit and Patriot Pride. To do this Student Council sponsored many activities such as the Buddy System, Safety Week, Alcohol Awareness and a presentation by Camphill Productions.

Also throughout the year Student Council had successful fund-raisers such as assemblies and victory dances. They sponsored the Homecoming dance and along with the Centennial Ball.

"Let Me Entertain You"

"Let Me Entertain You" was this year's theme for the cabaret show, which was a success thanks to Host Don Ho (alias Dale Brasel) and the Captain and Tenille (alias Gary Haygood and Kelley McGuffey).

The cabaret show was only one of the many fundraising activities that the choirs participated in this year to raise money for the A' Cappella Choir's trip to New Orleans. Throughout the year, A Cappella Women's and Mixed Choirs sold candles, cheese and sausage, worked at the Cowboy games selling popcorn and cokes. In addition to all this fundraising, the choirs had many performances. They held a Christmas concert, a Spring concert, and a special performance at Medical City where it was video-taped for the patients at Christmas.

Speech and Debate isn't all talk

Under the guidance of President Tina Hinkley and sponsor Mrs. Howard the Speech and Debate Club participated in various tournaments, where they competed against other schools in our district.

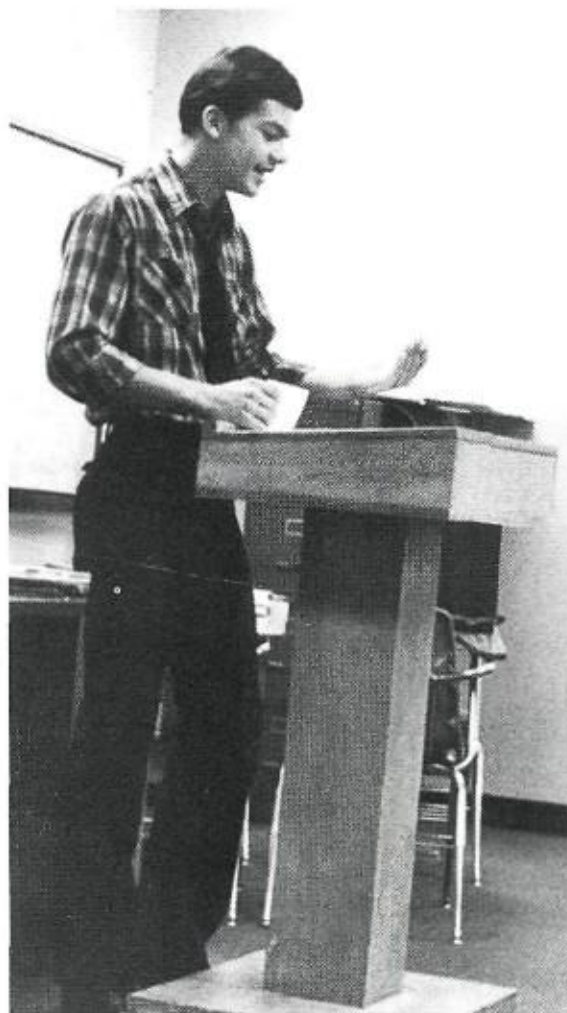

A few of the individual members competed in speech contests such as the Lions Club, Rotary Club and Optimist Club contests.

With all of this hard work, the Speech and Debate Club was successful once again.

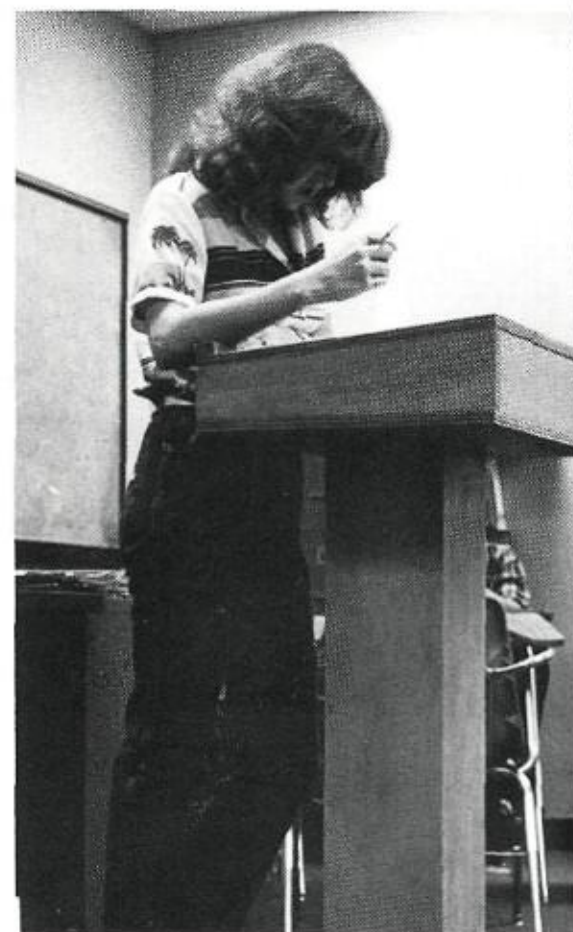

Wayne Kimbrough takes a practice run through his contest speech.

Art strives for form . . .

The Creative Arts Club, under the guidance of sponsor Kay Burkhalter and co-sponsor Sharon Rogers, was involved in many school and community projects.

At school, the Art Club aided the Student Council with Homecoming, by helping to do chalk etchings, large wall murals add by assisting in the decorating of the cafeteria.

The Art Club also aided the community by helping to decorate the Christmas tree which was located in Garland Square.

Many art students entered the popular Garland Art Show and were very successful.

NHS keeps busy

National Honor Society kept busy this year with their fund raising ideas. At Valentine's the club sold Valentine cookies and on St. Patrick's Day they sold cup cakes. They also worked the concession stands at LC basketball games.

In order to be accepted in NHS, students must maintain an 11.00 average and must have high teacher recommendations.

The club had four major meetings this year, each to help the members better themselves. All meetings were kept in order with Sheila Greebon as sponsor and Brad Wasson as president.

Even while working hard, Beta Club members still manage to have fun.

Betas are outstanding

The National Beta Club consists of select students who have excelled in academics and citizenship.

During the year these members participated in fund-raisers such as selling Hopograms at Easter time.

They also had a party to which they invited the National Honor Society members and the Mu Alpha Theta members.

To end the year the members of the club chose one member to receive their annual scholarship. This member showed outstanding leadership, dedication along with high academics and good citizenship.

Best Little Drama Club in Texas

"The Best Little Drama Club in Texas" proved to be just that in this year's productions of "Dracula" and the musical "No No Nanette."

Starstruck began their third year as the performing troop for Lakeview. This troop, containing some of the most outstanding Thespian club members, performed at various local elementary schools and Nursing homes during the Christmas holidays. To become a member of Thespians you must have at least fifteen points. To earn these points you must work and be involved in the club productions.

Longstanding club members have adopted a big brother and sister program in which they buy presents for the new club members.

Parents played a big part in the success of the Thespians club. They helped to prepare the costumes and sets for club productions during the year.

Sponsor Kim Stinson, along with President Wayne Kimbrough and other club members, helped make this year's Thespians club an enjoyable and worthwhile experience for all who were involved.

Mileta Powell helps Dale Crawford prepare for his next performance in "Dracula."

Krissa Patton (Mina) discovers Traci Buckner (Lucy) in a trance, after having been bitten by a vampire.

Club attends plays

Under the leadership of sponsor Brenda Mabry and president Lincoln Thompson, the French Club kept busy by attending several French comedies. During the fall the club saw "The Physician in Spite of Himself" by Moliere and in the spring "Tartuffe" also by Moliere.

The French Club did not have any fundraising projects due to the fact that the club members last year did an outstanding job in building a surplus in the treasury according to Mrs. Mabry.

In May the club had a dinner to top the year off.

Sabrina Taylor, Laurie Sharp, and Sherie Hamilton demonstrate their masks which have been made for the Mardi Gras celebration.

Mrs. Mabry, along with Laurie Sharp, Sabrina Taylor and other club members, plan films which are to be shown to French classes.

Club attends convention

This year's German Club members and sponsor, Mrs. LeMaster, sold "Gummy Bears" to raise money for their trip to the Texas Association of German Students (TAGS) Convention.

At this convention many of Lakeview's German Club members competed against other Texas high school students for awards in academic and cultural events.

The students were very successful and the project kept the year busy but entertaining for German Club members.

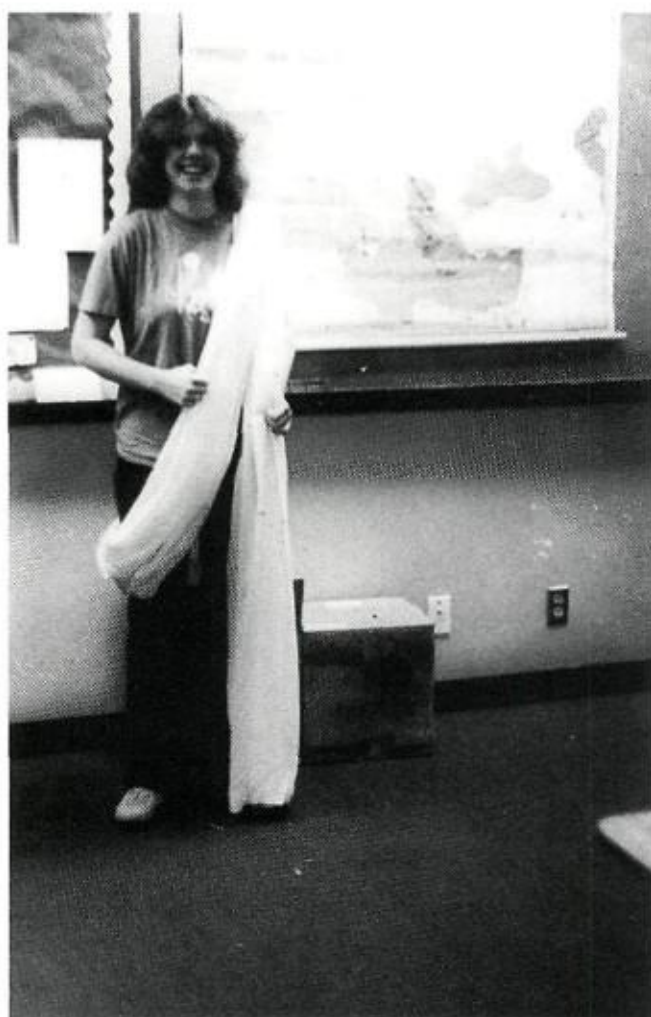

German Club sponsor Mrs. LeMaster grins at the thought of their trip to the TAGS convention.

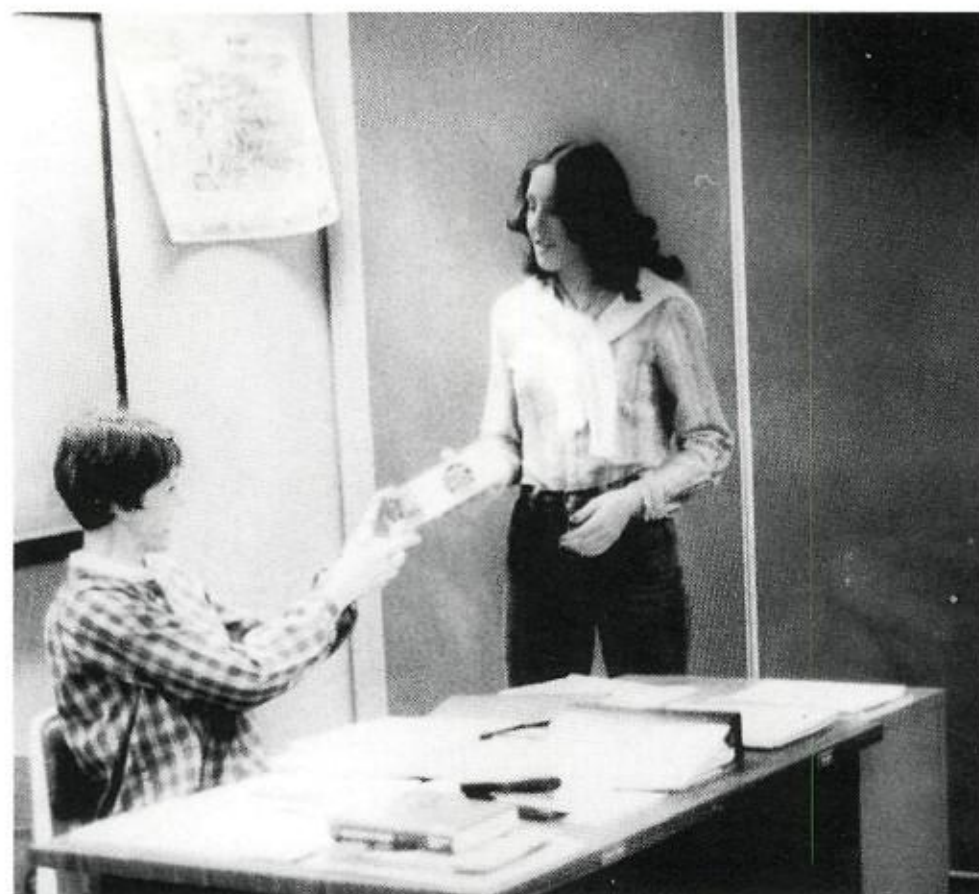

President Sabina Virani smiles at the success of the sale of "Gummy Bears."

Latins prove language alive

Under the leadership of sponsor Mrs. Vickie Harvey and president Harold Burnett, the Latin Club had another successful year. They sold candy to pay for their yearly trip to the Magic Time Machine where they had a Roman Orgy. At the end of the year they selected one outstanding member to receive a scholarship.

Spanish club plans fun year

Many activities were planned for this year's Spanish Club. President Nanette Blue and Vice President Kathy Jerome, along with other club members planned a year full of fun for all who became involved.

One successful activity this year was the Nacho sale held in the school's cafeteria. This sale helped raise money for club members who wished to attend the PASE convention in San Antonio. This convention which is held yearly, consists of Spanish-speaking students from all over Texas.

Another activity held this year was the weiner roast in which the Spanish club was host to other foreign language clubs from L.C. This roast was held at the home of Kathy Jerome. This year's sponsors were Ilonka Banister and Gae Cox.

Senora Banister, John Connor, and Jeanie Coats make plans for the Spanish Club trip to San Antonio.

Council links students, cafeteria

Youth Advisory Council (YAC) is a group of students who sample cafeteria foods and decide what they like to see in the lunch line every week. One of YAC's activities included serving in the cafeteria lunch line one day. They had fun while learning that the cafeteria life is not as easy as it seems. YAC also decorated the cafeteria for Halloween and Christmas.

Mrs. Pearson sponsored the group along with chairman Laura Luton, chairman-elect Donya Davis and secretary-reporter Christy Weeks.

Athletes grow closer through club fellowship

Members of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes grow closer through meetings, fellowship, retreats, and sports.

Huddles raise money throughout the year to go to National Conference. At National Conference athletes from all over the nation get together and share their past experiences in FCA.

On weekend retreats, FCA members get a small taste of what it is like at National Conference. A small retreat center in Crandall, Texas is provided for the use of area huddles.

Such figures as Tom Landry, Roger Staubach, and other Cowboy coaches and players are active in FCA and often speak at area meetings.

Publications participation teaches responsibility

Quite a lot of work goes into the production of a newspaper and a yearbook. Each day during fourth and sixth periods you can find students involved in these activities down in A Hall.

Each month another issue of the Sentinel, the school paper is sold to students. You may be sure that the budding journalists of A105, though perhaps not normally sought out, are the center of school attention as each month's Sentinel is bought, read, and discussed. Editor Shelley Miller, writers and ad staff attempt to keep students, faculty, and staff well informed on activities in and out of school.

The Legacy Editorial yearbook staff can be found each day during sixth period printing pictures, writing copy, and drawing lay-outs as another volume of the Legacy is under production for delivery in May. Editor-in-Chief, Donya Davis, along with Associate Editors Millie Cline, Bob Gharis, Darla Herd, Anna Lacy, and Tami Moore spend long hours approving lay-outs and rewriting copy.

A vital part of the Legacy is the business staff who, along with Business Manager Lisa Dockins, sell ads to various businesses, sell yearbooks, and school pictures. The business staff also handles all money and business for the book.

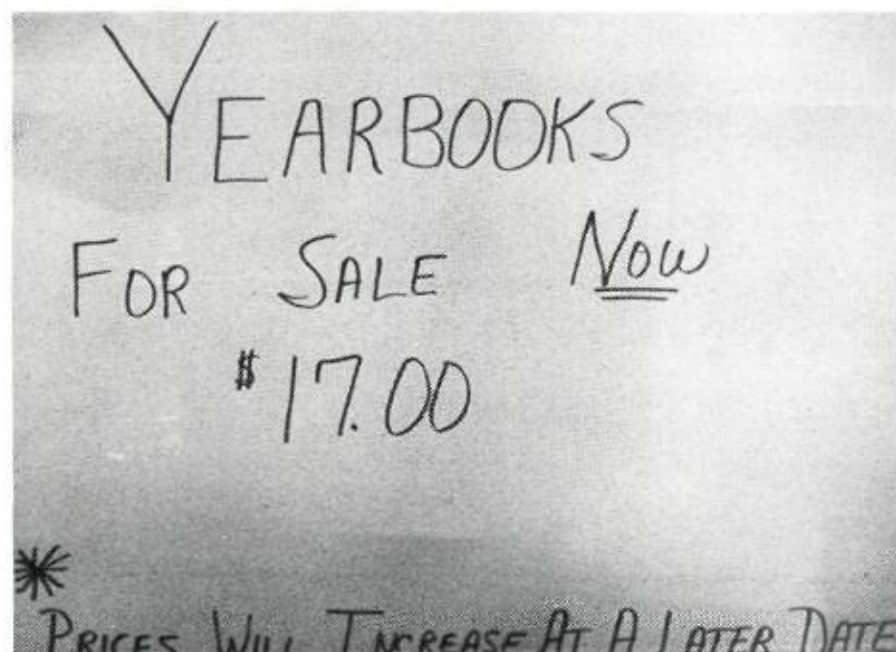

Under the supervision of editorial adviser Glenna Newkirk, and business adviser Denise Berwald, another volume of the Legacy is guaranteed to be placed upon the shelf each year.

Donya Davis takes over Ms. Newkirk's office again.

FTA gives awards

After spending last year rebuilding the club, sponsors Fern Roberson and Donna Vidacovich worked many hours with this year's FTA members.

Most of the work this year was put into the sale of Family Pop popcorn. During the spring, with the help of several parents, the girls sold Bunny Cookies at Easter.

Lakeview's FTA chapter began a new tradition this year with the creation of two new awards, Teacher of the Month and Teacher of the Year. Each Teacher of the Month was awarded the services of the FTA members for a month, a plaque bearing their name, and a glass with their name and the month for which they were chosen.

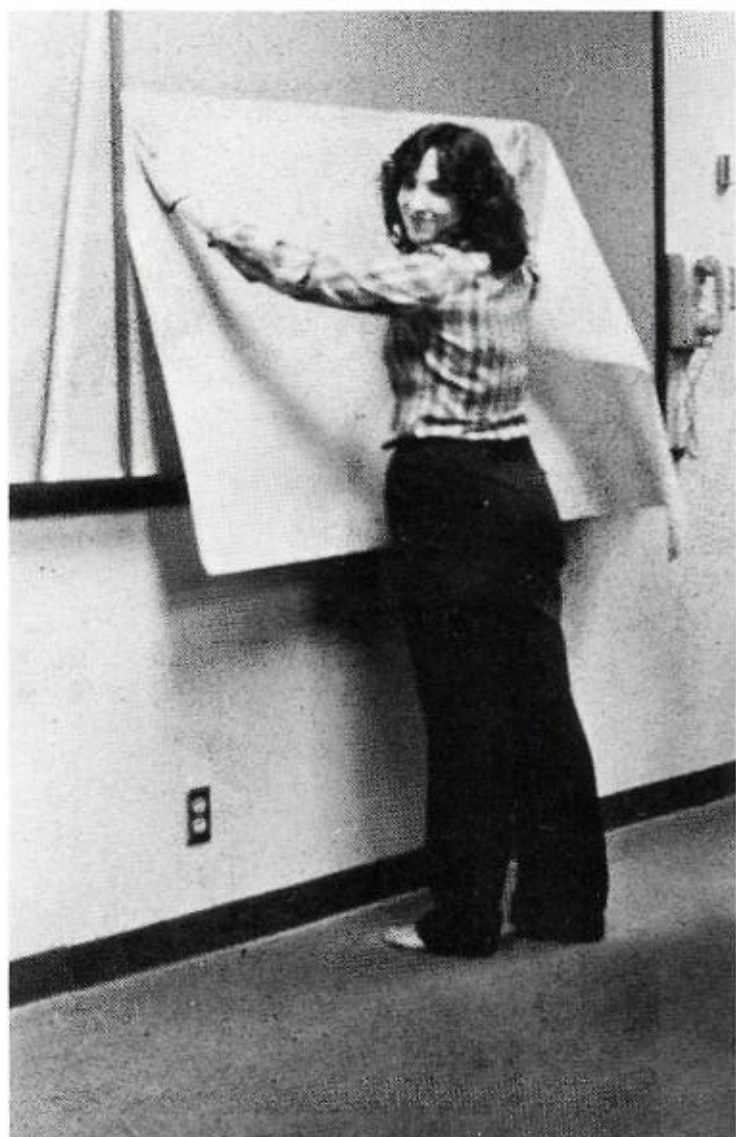

The FTA District 10 Convention held on the campus of East Texas State University in Commerce, was attended by 3 of the officers and the sponsors. They learned about several subjects, from child abuse to dealing with the problem child, in many seminar sessions conducted by authorities on the subjects.

The money remaining in the treasury at the end of the year will be given as a scholarship to a Senior member.

Give It All You've Got

... And that's exactly what our LCHS "the" band did.

To start the year rolling the twirlers, rifles, flags and percussion corps attended the Garland Auxillary Camp.

The band's 190 members started practice in early August to prepare for 17 performances in 10 weeks. These included the Garland Labor Day Parade, the Parade of Champions, the HEB Festival, and the VFW Parade, not to mention regular half time shows.

Along with these performances some members were preparing for individual try-outs held throughout the year for orchestra, All-Region, Area, UIL Solo and Ensemble and All-City. Again this year Lakeview provided over half of the members in the All-City band.

At the UIL Marching Contest in November, the band received a I (superior). The honors band performed at the Ark-La-Tex convention in Louisiana at which band directors from the South East heard the top three bands selected to perform.

To end the year, all four bands went to Corpus Christi.

FHA provides Homemaking Opportunities

Future Homemakers of America (FHA) is a national organization of home economics students. It provides many opportunities to develop individually the planning and carrying out of activities related to the roles of homemaker and wage-earner.

The many purposes of FHA include promoting the joys and satisfaction of homemaking, strengthening the function of the family as a basic unit of society and encouraging democracy through cooperative action in the home as well as the communities.

In March FHA members attended the Area V meeting at Skyline High School and in April selected members went to Fort Worth for the State Convention.

Patriot Minutemen keep spirit alive

The Patriot Mascot and Minutemen promoted spirit in the student body. Along with the cheerleaders, they lead chants and cheers during pep rallies and at varsity football and basketball games. They also helped the cheerleaders with difficult stunts.

The sponsor of the Minutemen is Andy Coleman, Gladys Dickey, also cheerleading sponsor, is the co-sponsor.

The Patriot Mascot, like the Minutemen played a vital part in pep rallies and varsity football and basketball games. The Patriot was chosen from many applicants who wrote papers stating why they would like to be the Patriot and how they would promote Patriot Pride and school spirit.

Another important duty of the Patriot was to lead the Senior class chant. After the underclassmen chants, the Patriot stood quietly until the entire gym was quiet. He raised his gun signalling the beginning of the senior class chant. This action of the Patriot was a symbol of respect for the graduating Senior class.

Varsity Cheerleaders display excellence

This year the Varsity Cheerleaders competed with other Varsity Cheerleaders at the University of Tulsa's Cheerleading Camp for the Award of Excellence.

The Varsity Cheerleaders, along with winning this award, have been kept busy supporting school spirit and leadership throughout the year.

Along with all these activities, the girls sponsored a clinic here at Lakeview to help further the gymnastic, dance and chant skills of younger cheerleaders in our community. The girls also taught at the Garland pee-wee clinic along with other high school cheerleaders in Garland.

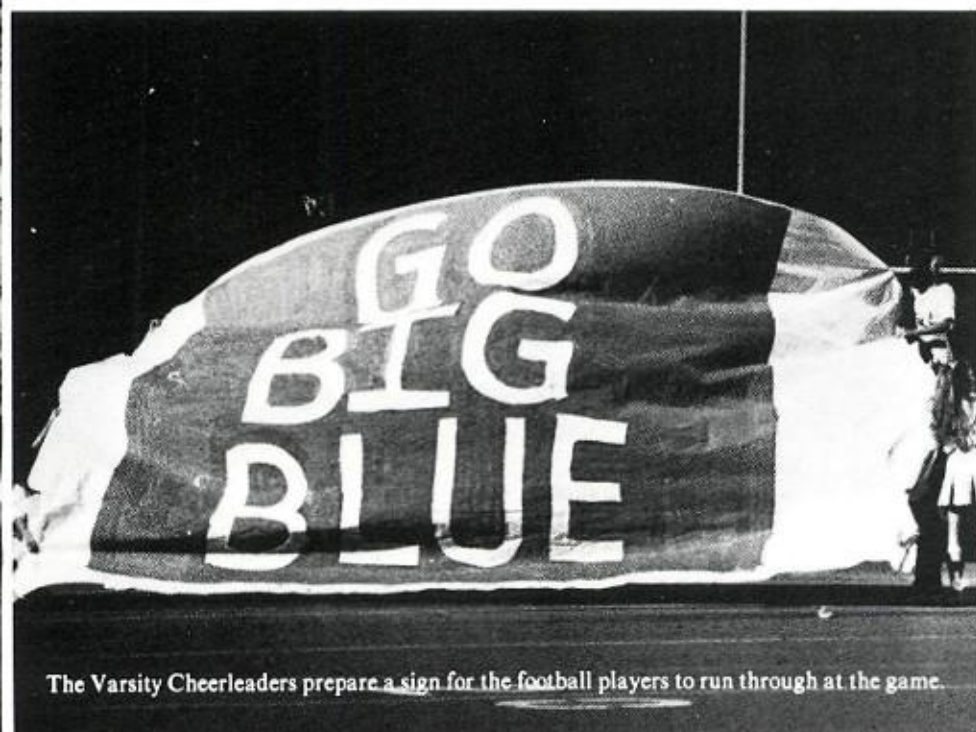

Along with various camps and clinics, the cheerleaders still managed to prepare themselves for the busy football and basketball seasons. They began practicing in the spring after try-outs and have continued each day throughout the year.

In the Garland Labor Day Parade, they began the year in style by riding in a limousine through downtown Garland.

The girls also supported our football team by decorating the locker room, performing at pep rallies and games.

Go Big Blue

The phrase "go Big Blue" went over big this year with the student body, thanks to the J.V. Cheerleaders whose originality helped promote school spirit.

Along with showing their pride in school activities they were nominated for the Award of Excellence at camp at Oklahoma State.

Kim Prewitt (head cheerleader) and Shelly Belt (assistant head cheerleader) along with the rest of the squad taught several clinics; one of which was in Central Park and the other here at Lakeview.

Other activities of the cheerleaders were participating in the Labor Day Parade and cheering at the Junior Varsity football games.

Freshmen cheer teams to victory

The freshman cheerleaders have had an exciting year from the very start. They participated in the University of Tulsa's cheerleader camp where they received two spirit sticks the first day and the award of Excellence for the best cheerleading squad in the camp.

They also participated in the Cheerleader Clinic here at Lakeview. Both squads did well as they walked away with the Award of Excellence and a spirit stick. Also, members of the squad helped teach at the Garland pee-wee clinic, where cheerleaders from grades five and up came from all over Garland to compete for awards and spirit sticks.

But, winning awards was not all the freshman cheerleaders did this year. They performed at football and basketball games throughout the year, and helped cheer on our football team at the varsity pep rallies.

Drill team sets new traditions

The J.V. drill team had a spirit-rousing year with Laurie Harris as Captain, and Tracee Belzle, Lesley Cunningham, Leisa McAdoo, Kim Raines, and Jessica Russell as lieutenants. Liberty Dolls also had 41 returning members.

Their director, June Williams, has added a new dimension to the Liberty Dolls by adding squad leaders this year. The officers hope to start a tradition with a new strut using batons this year.

They participated in all of the J.V. activities and the girls were seen marching in the Labor Day Parade, at football games, pep rallies, and also at the grand opening of Sleepland.

Sweethearts have outstanding year

The Yankee Doodle Sweethearts had an outstanding year under director Joyce Pennington, and the fine leadership of the officers, Sheila Price, captain, and Nancy Murphy, Lisa Mai, Janna Citelli, Lisa McLain, Diane Moore and Misty Reid, lieutenants.

The girls started bringing in trophies and awards during the summer at drill team camp held at SMU. They won 11 trophies as well as various individual ribbons.

Sheila was chosen runner-up for outstanding marcher, and Nancy was chosen outstanding dancer. Misty Reid was named outstanding girl at officer camp.

The Sweethearts added spirit at the football games and pep rallies, and at half time they kept the crowds in their seats. They also marched in the Garland Labor Day Parade.

The highlight of the year was the Dallas Cowboy vs. St. Louis football game where the Sweethearts performed at half time.

Auto skills as a trade

Down in C hall many technical programs are taught. One of these programs is Auto Mechanics. The students in Auto Mechanics learn the intricacies of car maintenance.

Are you a person with artistic ability to make old cars look like new? If you are, then Auto Paint and Body is for you. It is a vocational program designed to teach the techniques that are needed to restore cars.

Both of these organizations attended the district meet and went on to the finals at San Antonio.

Preparing to enter health fields

Health Occupations Cooperative Training (HOCT) is beginning its first year at LCHS. The purpose of HOCT is to develop an awareness of health-related fields. The students learn primary health skills, the terms and legalities of the medical field, as well as job interviewing techniques.

Students involved in this program attend school half a day and work at an approved health care occupation the other half.

Patriots have some bright moments

After completing an 0-10 season last year, the Patriots came back determined to fill up the win column, but Big Blue was not able to fulfill their hopes. There were, however, some bright spots in the otherwise bleak season. Along with several close games, the Pats won over Newman-Smith, 18-10, in their first win since defeating the Garland Owls, 14-3, during the '79 season.

Despite the lack luster season, the Patriots received outstanding play from many young athletes. Sophomores Clay Davis and Scott Delozier made several good showings on speciality teams against opposing upperclassmen. Pat Kuntz, who transferred from South Garland, moved up from J.V. at the end of pre-district and also had an outstanding season averaging six yards per carry. Quarterback-turned-safety Don Percy played well every game taking part in some key blocks and tackles.

Mike Miller, Glenn Feild, Lawrence Robinson, Bobby Watters, Lang Raney, and Jerry Downey were named Garland News players of the week.

Raney was also unanimous selection to the All-Garland team. Split end

Lawrence Robinson, tackle Eli Perez and defensive linemen Gary Cantrell, Steve Blackshear and Wendell Mize received honorable mention.

Mize and tight end Glenn Field were named second team All-District.

Along with these two, tackle Steve Blackshear, guard Gary Cantrell, wide receiver Lawrence Robinson, quarterback Bobby Watters, linebacker Lang Raney, defensive back Scott Delozier, and defensive lineman Vance Vonderheid received Honorable Mention All-District. Raney was also chosen by the Garland coaches as Defensive Player of the Year.

Bobby Watters was Player of the Week three times during the season and earned the nickname "Super Soph" from Daily News Sports Editor Kyle Dantzler. Watters was also named Sophomore of the Year by the Garland coaches. To add to his list of honors and accomplishments the district coaches named LC's "Super Soph" District 10-5A Sophomore of the Year.

Close games cause exciting season

The Junior Varsity had an exciting season with several close games against tough teams.

Outstanding play from the offensive line and running backs contributed to that excitement. Jim Barnett, Kirk Ferrel and Darren Williams played a major role in the success of the Lakeview offense.

An even stronger defense was led by defensive back Roger Garcia, linebacker Jeff Waller and defensive end Brad Lucky.

The Patriots defeated both the Highland Park Scots and the Rockwall Yellowjackets 14-7.

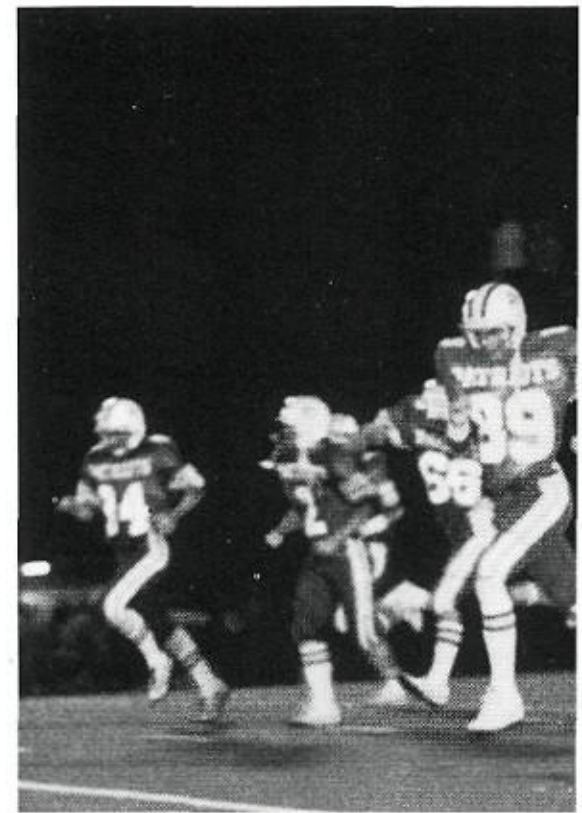

In the Rockwall game, the Yellowjackets were heavily favored, but this did not intimidate the Patriots. Outstanding players in the game included Mark Hamblin who in the first quarter caught a 31 yard pass from quarterback Ken Ferrell to set up his own touchdown on an inside reverse. Pat Kuntz also had an outstanding game with 148 yards on 17 carries and one touchdown. Ken Ferrell went three for five in passing for 56 yards.

The team's record was 2-8, but as offensive lineman James Pulley said, "I was a little bit disappointed in our record, but we got a lot accomplished this season. Now we're looking forward to playing on Varsity next year."

Sophomore quarterback Mark Hamblin cocks his arm to throw another picturesque TD pass.

Gold wins district

Under the direction of Coaches Catlett and Winterbauer, the Freshman Gold team finished the season at 8-1-1. This record won them the District title. These 33 athletes showed excellent teamwork and, as if they knew they would reach great heights, played with a great desire to win.

Two outstanding offensive threats were Steve Livingston and Brent Hutto. Livingston broke the team single game rushing record with 185 yards against North Garland.

'The Patriots' opponents mistakes could always be turned to LC's favor. Hutto had a knack for this kind of work.

Among the other standouts for the Gold team were quarterback Frank Bettencourt, tackle Joe Dunn, and Split-end Shane Eaton.

Blue ties City

Coaches Cox and Garvin led their Freshman Blue team to a 3-7 record. This mark was good enough to tie for the City Championship with North Garland.

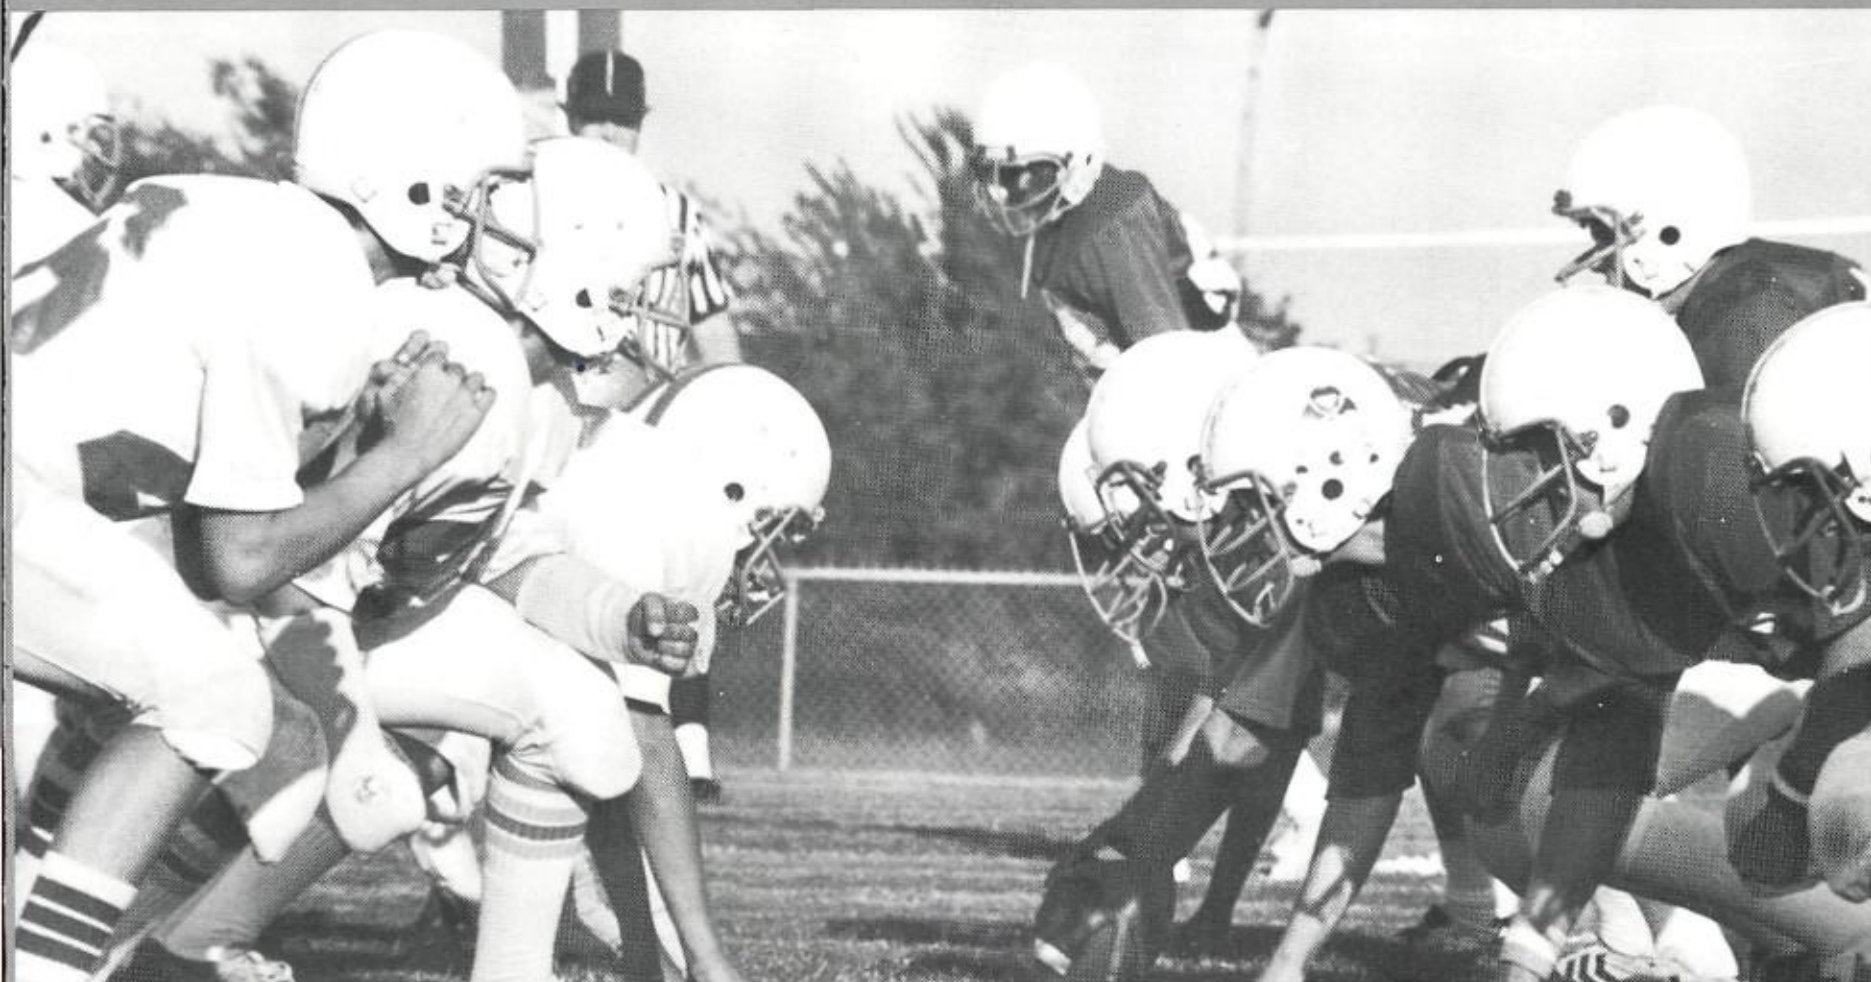

Many players did not live up to early expectations and the result was a season filled with many ups and downs.

Outstanding players were quarterback David Hennigan, backs Eddie King and Davey Moore, center Tom Blackshear and middle linebacker Shawn Sadler.

Coach Cox, referring to Steve Plumlee, Reggie Roquemore and Mike Stuart, said, "They never had a bad game."

Returning players display leadership

Again this year, the Patriots had five returning players from last year's squad. These five seniors were the leaders for the team this season. They worked hard from the beginning of school.

Lakeview competed in a tough district and fared well. "We finished a little ahead of where I expected to be, so it was a good season," said Coach John Paul Fultz. Quickness was not one of the Pats main assets, but they made up for it through use of the full court press defense that was Lakeview's trademark.

The team's greatest asset was senior Mike Wiebold, the team's leading scorer, who Fultz called, "the best guard in the district." As the Legacy went to press, fans were awaiting the All-Garland and All-District rosters to come out so they could see just how many Patriots were on the list. Among the probable candidates were seniors Wade King, Steve Hogg and Bobby White and sophomore Bobby Watters. King suffered with his weak ankles all season but did not miss a game.

Playing his first year on the Varsity squad, Hogg saw much action and was among the top rebounders on the team. Another veteran, White was a strong part of the team's defense and a good leader. Having temporarily hung up his football cleats for a pair of hightops, Watters turned up as one of the most promising underclassmen in the district.

Winners are not always measured by a win-loss column, but by what's inside them. Coach Fultz feels that, for this reason, his team was District Champs. The leadership quality in all the seniors seemed to spill over onto the others. Fultz was blessed with a team that did not quit when they got behind but kept playing like it was for the district title. "They've got a lot of heart and I'm proud of them," said Coach Fultz.

Hustling team has good season

The J.V. Basketball team has had an exciting year with a balanced team attack.

The Pats were led on the court by hustlers Jay Brown and Kyle Boehler. Leading scorers for the year were Darrell Brookins, Tony Wright, Kap Watters, Ronnie Johnson, and Terry Armstrong. Leading Patriot rebounders were freshman post Don Watts, sophomore forwards Kap Watters and Tony Wright and sophomore guard Darrell Brookins.

This year, the Patriots have been known for their defensive effort. The one word that sums up the J.V. Basketball team this season is "Hustle."

Teamwork brings rewarding season

Teamwork and unselfishness highlighted the season for the Freshman Blue team. Several of the players had been on teams together since sixth grade and were used to working with each other. This helped the team to feel more at ease with each other on the court.

The unforgettable game for the Patriots this year was the win over the Wilmer-Hutchins Eagles who were undefeated and leading the district. The Pats were hot all night and after playing three and a half quarters of hard fought basketball, they pulled ahead and won by two points.

Lakeview saw excellent play efforts from Shane Eaton, Mark Pumphrey, Craig William, Ronnie Watkins, Frank Bettencourt and Gary Whetstone. Watkins, Bettencourt and Whetstone earned a spot on the J.V. squad where they played in several pre-district games.

Gold functions as farm team

Under the leadership of Coach Winterbauer, the Freshman Gold team had an exciting season. The guys worked hard all year and accomplished many extraordinary feats.

"We function as a farm team of sorts. We are constantly losing players to the Blue team," said Coach Winterbauer.

This was the main reason that the team was not consistent.

Despite their troubles the team saw great play from Cody Brothers, Reggie Roquemore and Dennis Percy. Percy was a victim of the draft and moved up to the Blue team at the end of the first half of district play.

Gary Whetstone goes to the free throw line to take a pair of foul shots.

Season reflects hard work

Varsity began district play with a 12-0 record including a first place trophy from the Royce City Tournament. Their first district game was against Garland High. They defeated the Owls 15-5, 15-7. Jeannine Duval had 10 points resulting from serves and Christy Little had eight successful spikes.

October 1, they overpowered the North Garland Raiders 15-3, 15-7. Joan Butler lead the Pats with six serves while Sheri Lancaster was the leading spiker.

After the game against the Raiders, they played Mesquite. They lost the first match 8-15 but came back and swatted the Skeeters 15-7, 15-10. Jeannine Duval completed the night with 13 spikes and Christy Little and Misty Pickering were leading setters. The Pats ended the first round of district with a 3-4 record.

Once again they played the Owls and defeated them 15-5, 16-14. October 13 the Patriots traveled to Highland Park and returned in victory. Butler lead the team with 17 serves. Little had 13 spikes, Duval had 12 and Butler had 10.

After defeating the Scots, the team took on North Mesquite. Having lost the first match 5-15, they worked hard to win the next two 15-8, 15-8. Angi Yoder had seven serves and Butler had eight.

With only two games left, Lakeview again played North Garland. They overpowered the Raiders with scores of 15-7, 15-6.

The Patriots ended the season with a 19-7 record, the best Lakeview Volleyball has ever had.

Christy Little, leading the team in spikes, adds another outstanding play to her collection. Little played a large part in the varsity victory over G.H.S.

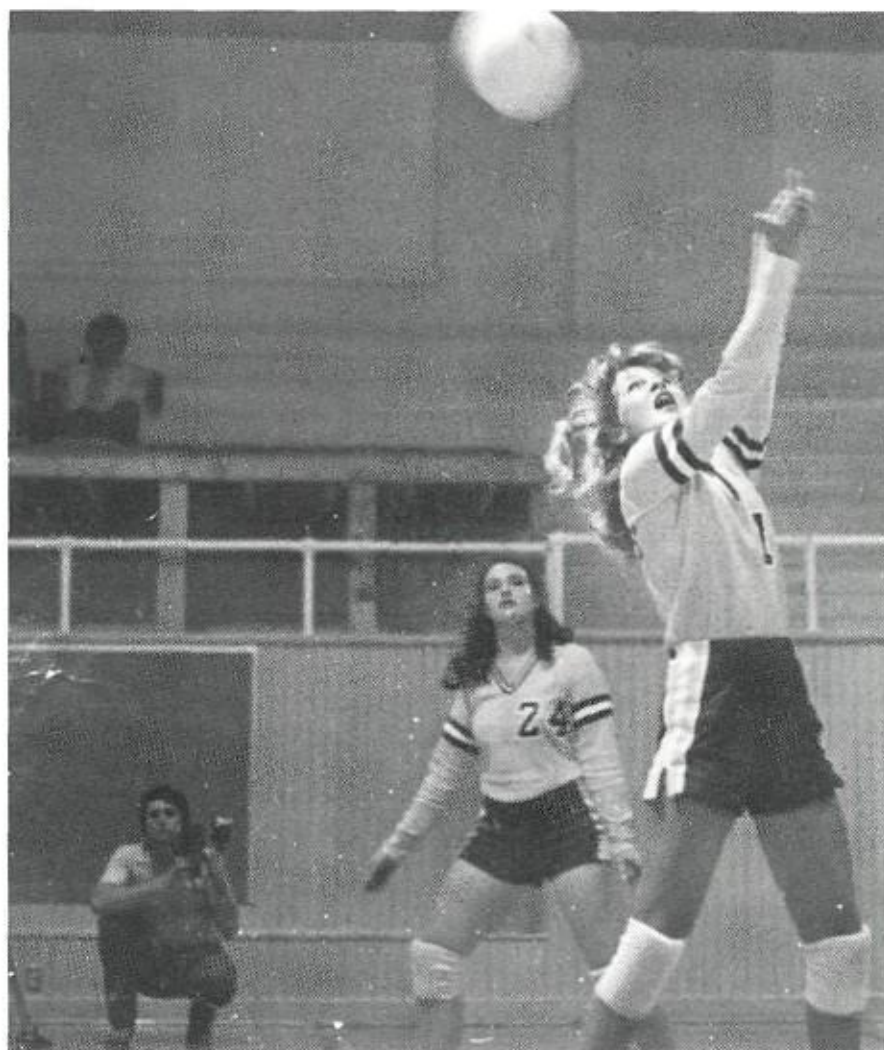

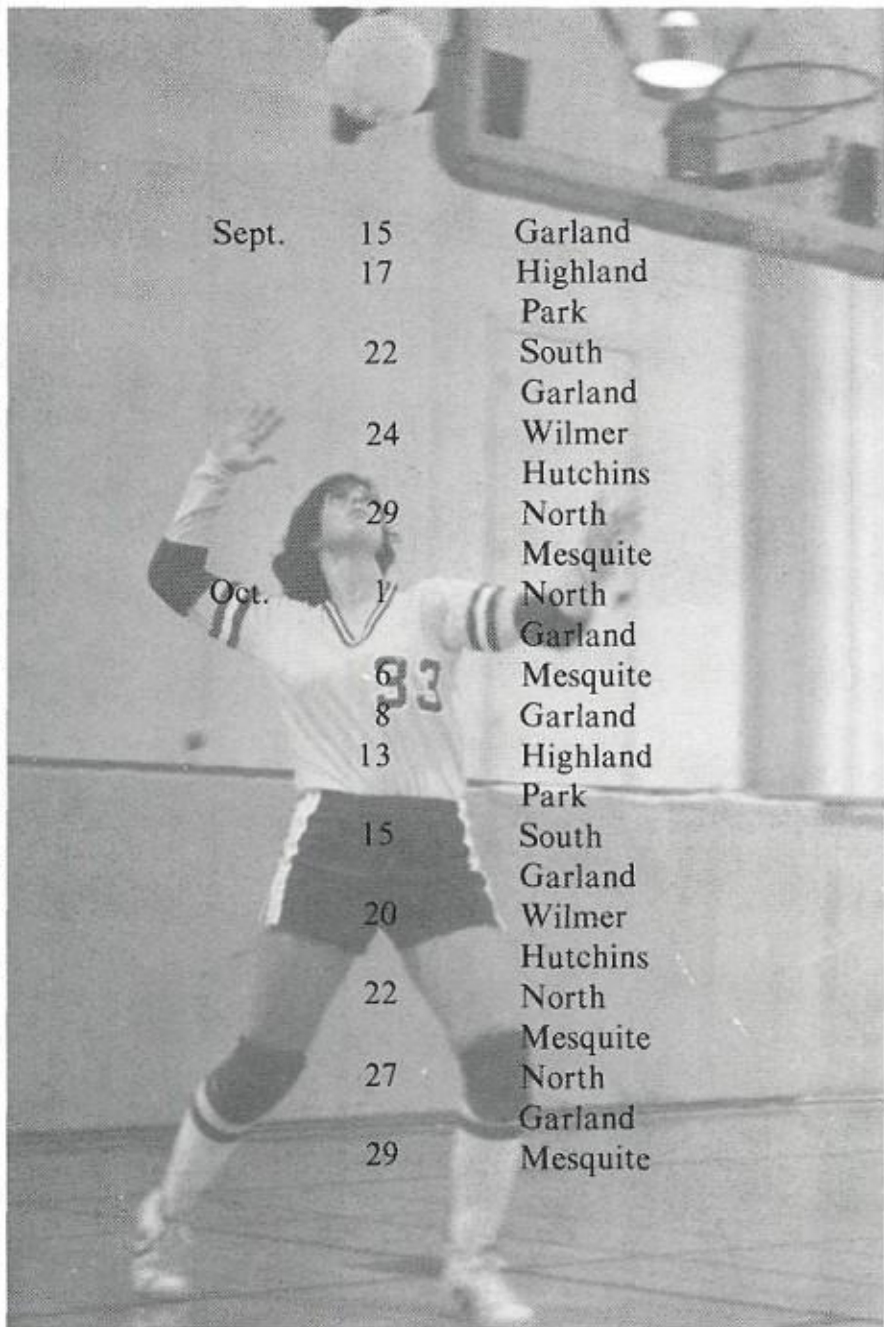

Senior Kim Wayne, in the game against South Garland, breaks the Colonels serve and sets up the ball for a Patriot play.

In an effort to set up a play, Christy Little bumps the ball.

As they take a time-out, the Pats rest and receive encouragement from their coach.

In a scrimmage game against Bonham, Becky Kasper bumps the ball deep towards the back line.

Winning 8-0, the Pats patiently wait for the opponents serve.

Serving with excellent form, Senior Angie Yoder makes an effort to get the Patriots more points.

In a tough game against S.G., Jeannine Duval bumps the ball deep into the opponents court. Duval, a senior, was voted Most Valuable Player by her teammates.

Tough season does not stop Pats

Starting out district play with an 8-2 record, J.V. lost their first game to Garland High though they fought hard. They played Highland Park next, defeating the Scots 15-9, 15-5. Nancy Oglin led the team in serves with eight points while Michelle Weeks and Carla Albright had three spikes each.

The Patriots next struggled with the South Garland Colonels, losing the first match 8-15. They came back and won the next two 15-7, 15-6. Jennifer Lindbergh lead the Pats with 12 serves and four spikes.

September 29 they played North Mesquite and beat the Stallions 15-8, 15-3. Lisa West lead the team with 13 serves and Albright lead with three spikes.

October 22 the Pats played the Stallions again. They won the first match 16-14 but lost the second 6-15. In the third match, the Stallions played hard but the Pats won the battle, 15-13.

The last game of the season was against Mesquite. Again they had a win, a loss, and a win. The scores were 15-6, 4-15, 15-5.

J.V. finished the season with a 13-11 record.

Sophomore Jennifer Lindbergh shows her excellent form as she bumps the ball over into the opponents' court.

Lady Pats have good season

Girls varsity improved greatly this year. Starting out with a promising preseason, they ended district with a good record. With five seniors on the team, experience was one of their strong points.

The best win of the season was against South Garland, 49-47. Cara Cranford was high scorer with 16 points while Shawn Williams had 12.

The game with the widest marginal win was against Garland High, 52-33. Cranford was high scorer with 22 points and Jeannine Duval had 10.

The leading scorers for the season were Duval and Cranford. The leading rebounder was also 6'2" Cranford.

Season rewarding for girls JV

Girls' Junior Varsity did well this season. Because of the small turn-out for Girl's Basketball, the freshman team was dropped and the players were moved up to J.V.

With such a young team, they had trouble competing with the more experienced teams.

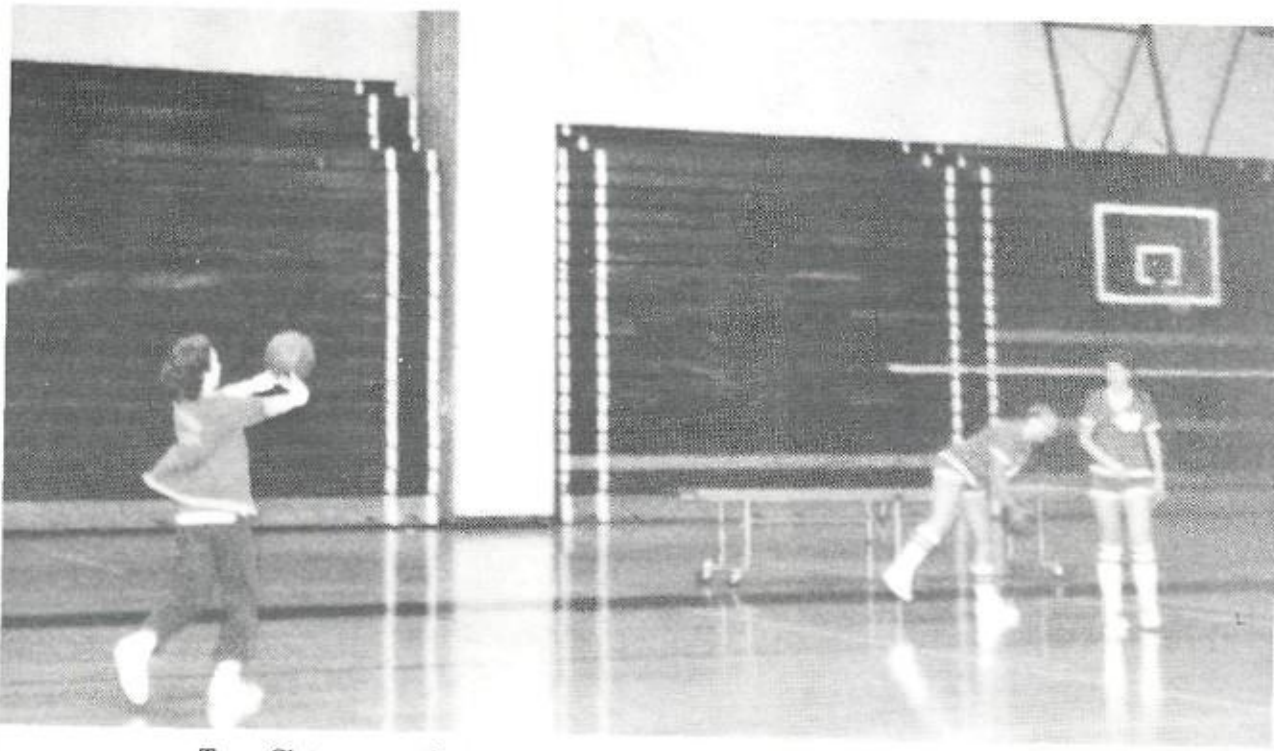

Outstanding players were Dana Neal and Shelley Schrade.

Jennifer Muirhead shoots a lay-up while Carla Albright waits for the rebound.

Students get into the swing of things

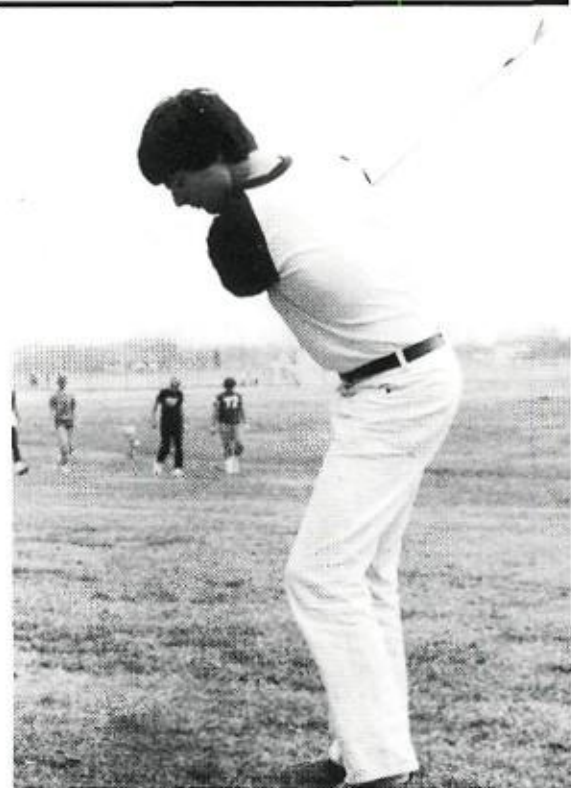

Coach Knight looked forward to an exciting year with his golf team.

With only four returning golfers, the coach looked elsewhere to increase his team. Football players joined the team and participated when their own sport was not active. This added athletic ability turned out to be the strength of Lakeview's team.

Patriot golfers found themselves at a disadvantage since they had no course near enough to practice on regularly. Coach Knight and the boys overcame this obstacle with lots of hard work and were able to finish well in most of the invitational tournaments and district matches in which they participated.

Bo Brownlee, one of the off-season football players recruited by Coach Knight, begins his daily practice session with a few short strokes.

Small team produces big results

Lakeview's gymnastics team had only seven members, but did very well in district competition. The team took first place in several meets and individual gymnasts performed well, too.

The Patriots played host for a meet on February 3. Pat gymnasts came out on top with Jay Dyal taking first in all events (rings, vault, pommel horse, floor exercise and parallel bars) and Best All-Around. Kelly Arbuckle was the only girl competing; she placed high in floor exercise and vault. The other girl, Terry Bien, suffered a broken ankle early in the year and spent most of the season recuperating.

Team rebuilds for future

Lakeview's tennis program went through a year of remodeling. After Linda Drake went to North Garland, Coach Joni Moorehead began to set up her own program by starting at the bottom and building up.

With only 11 returning from last year's team, Moorehead had a tough year. Much of the team's success can be attributed to what junior Renee Helams described as "lots of team spirit and unity among the players."

Scott Fitzgerald, one of the team's few Seniors, felt that Lakeview had "a strong team (with) lots of potential".

Besides competing in district matches Coach Moorehead's team battled Rockwall, J. J. Pearce, Corsicana, Plano Vines and Plano Clark. They also competed in tournaments at West Lake and The Shores Country Clubs.

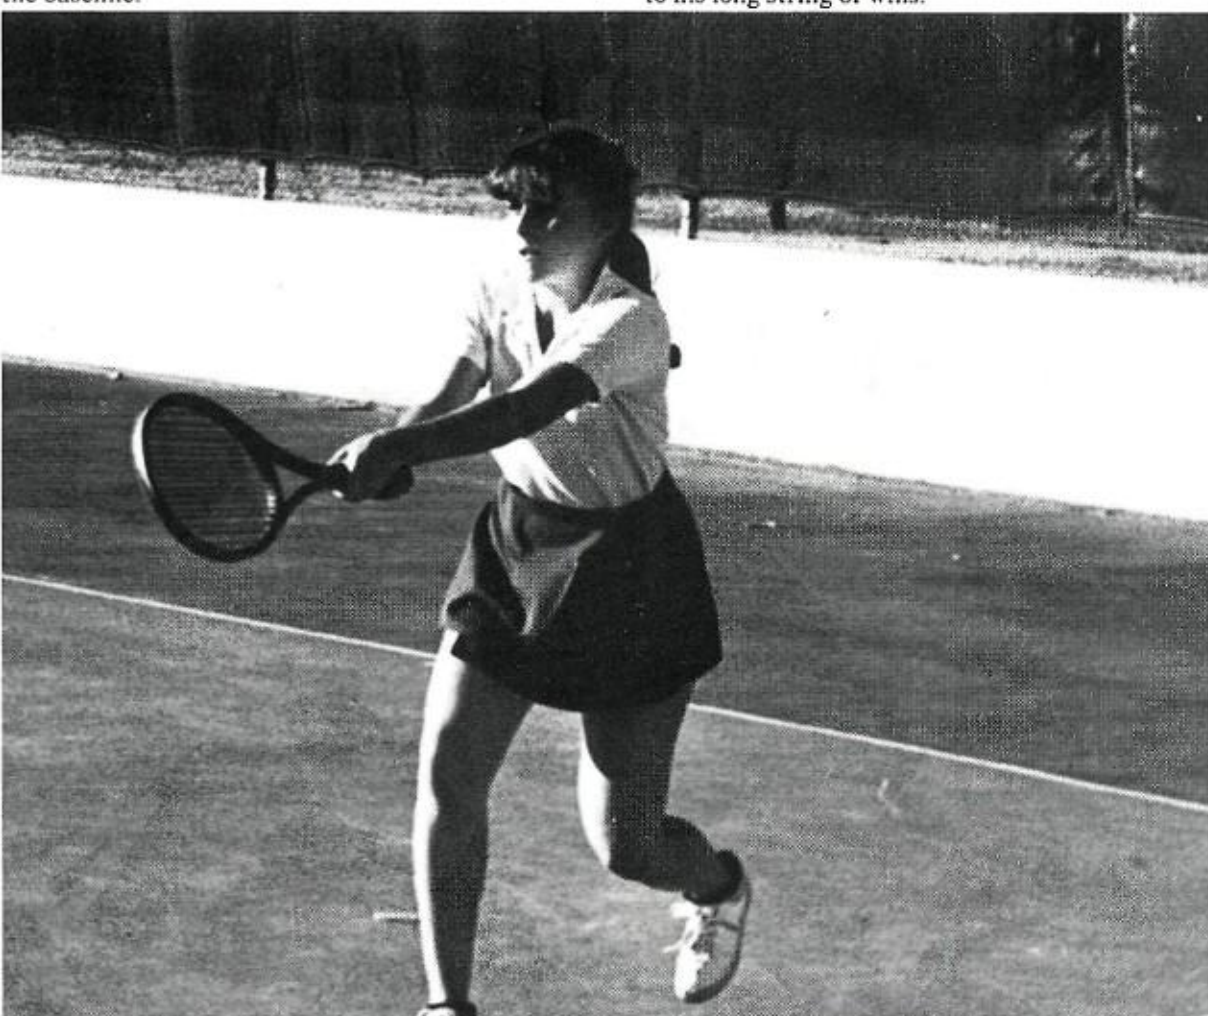

Lakeview's girls did well in the West Lake tourney with Stacy Donihoo and Valerie Buckner bringing the Girls B-Doubles title.

Stretching for the shot, Jon Pesnell adds another to his long string of wins.

Madelyn Hill rushes the net to return a volley into her opponents court.

One of the few freshmen on the team, Eric Burns shows the top form that won his spot.

Coach anticipates exciting season

Girls track was practicing hard at press time. To be ready to compete, the team had to start practicing when it was still bitterly cold outside.

Many experienced girls returned and new ones came in to help strengthen the team. The new coach, Susan Rucker, said it looked as if they were going to have an exciting season.

Track girls start out their practice by stretching out with easy exercises.

Track team reaches new heights

Coach Mark Lipscomb inherited the track team this year and did a good job with the boys. The coach had several strong members and expected the team to reach new heights.

The Patriots were blessed with one of the fastest people in Garland, Pat Kuntz. He and Jay Monroe are Lakeview's two speedsters. Kuntz aimed high this year, shooting for the state finals this summer.

Pole vaulter Bill Townes, who holds the school record, planned to beat his own mark. With this motivation, the team worked hard all spring and hoped to do well in the City meet in mid-April.

Coach Cox coached the Freshman Track team. He was also lucky in having two of the fastest freshmen in the city, Davey Moore and Eddie King, and high hurdler Brian Finley.

Steve Hunt takes his mark as Scott Hearne watches.

Team's strong points are experience, leadership

Under the direction of Coach Sam Garvin, the Varsity Soccer team planned an exciting year. The team's strong points fell in their depth of experience and senior leadership.

Eloy Granado, Lenny Moore, and Sam Engelberg, returning starters for the last three years, led the team both on the field and off, with their ability and attitude. The team's success relied upon strong backfield and several substitute players ready to go into the game.

Girls strive for perfection

Girls soccer had a new coach this year, Leanne Drum. The team looked good at press time even though they had only competed in a few games. They were practicing hard in the cold weather, trying to be the best team ever at Lakeview.

While striving for perfection, they kept Patriot Spirit and sportsmanship alive. Coach Drum said she was pleased to see the girls work so hard.

Tammy Caldwell and Angie Riner race for the ball during a hard workout.

Mike,

Strong pitching means top choice team

Because of Lakeview's strong pitching staff, the Patriots are picked in the top of District 10-AAAAA every year. The same thing happened again this year.

Coach Henderson was sure, as the season began, that the team would probably live up to those expectations. "Pitching is what makes or breaks a high school ball club. We definitely have the pitching talent, and should do very well."

Junior Steve Blackshear, a two year letterman, returned to the mound with the intention of breaking his record of 113 strike-outs in the '81 season. Senior Mike Wiebold took the field to earn his third letter in baseball. The Pats gained ex-Colonel pitching ace John Sheetz this year to round out the staff. Sheetz missed the first four weeks of the season recuperating from surgery. Upon his return he was able to accomplish some good things and experienced many bright moments on the mound.

The unsung heroes behind the plate who catch for Patriot pitchers, Wayne Langley and Clay Davis, did a fine job this year; possessing the courage to catch the 90+ mph fast balls of Steve Blackshear was a feat in itself.

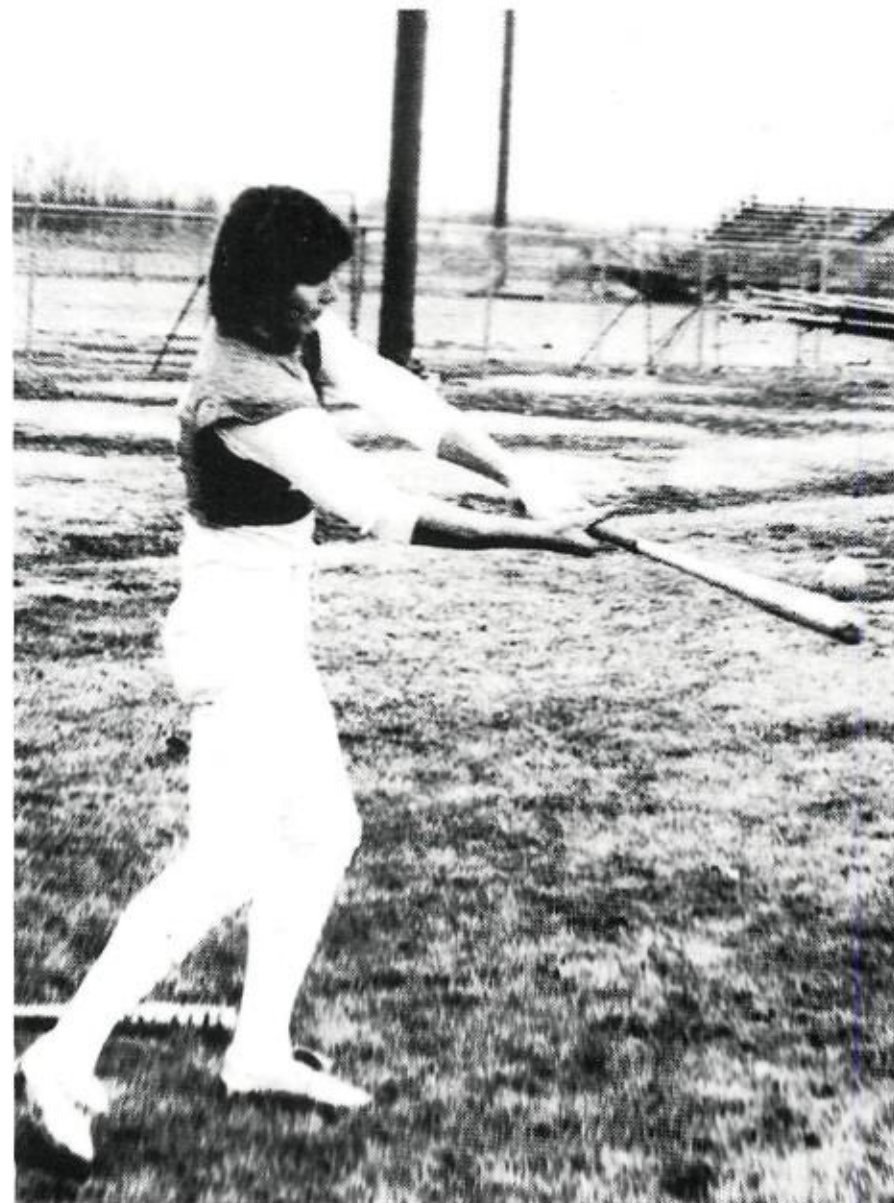

Shortstop Pat Kuntz used his speed and agility to cover the territory between second and third base with relative ease. Outfielders Bill Townes, Ken Artz, Pat Banks, and Brian Foster did extremely well in covering the area. Each one made numerous game saving plays on pop-up flies.

At the beginning of the season Coach Henderson looked forward to an exciting year. By the time May 6 rolled around, Eddie Henderson found his dreams coming true, with his Patriots finishing in the top half of the district.

Junior Bill Rice takes a swing with the hopes of hitting another grand slam.

Phillip Highfill loosens up his arm in a set of daily pitches during practice.

Returning a ball to the pitchers, Doug Walls pulls back his arm in preparation.

Brant Pope dives for the ball while trying to stay clear of the mud puddles.

Clay Davis extends his bat to mark his target as he watches for the pitcher's throw.

Varsity hopefuls show potential

Coach Ferrell said his team showed a lot of potential and just might surprise the district. As the scrimmage games began to take place, the team was starting to take form and show their various abilities.

The coach felt that several of his Patriots were varsity material, and he planned on losing a few of them to Coach Henderson. Despite his unstable roster, Ferrell was able to do well with his team.

Mike,

Hey baby! I'm gonna miss you so much. The masts will never be the same on the Gong Show. The peer rifles are gonna be pretty sad next year.
I hope you'll call me this summer so we can do a lot of partying! I know you'll leave college and you'll probably forget about all of us. But I'll always remember you and the crazy times we had. Come see us next year during marching season. Please write me letters when you leave. Keep in touch! Please!

A LETTER TO THE EDITOR

A daughter is a precious gift —
a blessing from above,
She's laughter, warmth,
and special charm,
she's thoughtfulness and love.
A daughter brings a special joy
that comes from deep inside,
And as she grows to womanhood,
she fills your heart with pride,
With every year that passes,
she's dearer than before,
Through every stage —
through every age,
you love her even more!
For all you are,

Miky,

You have been such a good friend for the past LCHS years, I can't believe you're moving after we graduate! What am I gonna do with you gone? I have had a total blast with you in Band, Corpus, English, etc etc! I have so many good memories of the fun times we had, you helped me through so many things (Doug) and I feel like I'm losing a brother! You'd better keep in touch from Austin, & remember me whenever you are! Good luck at UT,

Keep up the good grades, etc! I hope your future brings the best to you!

I love you!

Thank you for all your advice and friendship; it made my senior year a memorable one. Alicia Marie

Thanks for making the memories of high school treasured ones.

Hey toots — Thanks bunches for your continuous smiles and prayers. Love you loads, Nanette

Hey Man, you help me grow as a person. Why can't you grow an inch or two? Love you lots, K.D.

Thanks for your guidance and help and especially for your friendship. Laura Kay

Thanks for being you. I wish we could make duplicates of you. Then the world would have more wonderful but short people like you. Love, Sabine

The 81-82 Student Council officers would like to thank the student body and faculty for their undying support of all of our activities and special events. We have all enjoyed serving as your officers and wish to all the Seniors of LCHS a successful future and life and to all of the underclassmen many more exciting years at Lakeview.

To our beloved sponsor, Miss Dretha Burris, we thank you . . .

I'll never forget the fun times we've shared. I'll cherish my memories of you forever. Love, Rebecca Munchkin — You don't know how much you mean to me. I'll never forget all the special times. Mildred Louise

Mike,
 you're such a slut!
 but I love it! hee! Congratulations and good luck just kiddin. You're to the Seniors of 1982...
 one of the funniest & funniest people I know. I've had so much fun being around you in class and anywhere else.
 If you become a La Brea dancer, be sure and give me a free pass. Ok.? Hope you have a blast at U.T. but watch out for Hare Krishnas and stay out of jail!
 (please don't join a cult)
 I wish you still lived in Rowlett so you could visit me this summer! We'll still have to go to Rocky ^{Horror} or the Hot Club together. Don't forget me over the summer
 you SLEEZ.
 Love ya,
 Lisa me
 Ti
 P.S. Thanks for always being in a good mood, cuz you
 could always cheer
 me up.

Lakeview... you've come a long way...

Mike,
I don't really know you all
that well but I do know you are a fun, partying
guy with a great sense of humor. Good luck in the future. I will be successful.

Love ya,
Karen
Maubrey

Mike,
you a great guy.
I'm glad we got to know each other this year in news class. I hope you have a great time at college. You'll need to give me your address
so I can come see you sometime. Love ya,
Shelly.

Love ya bunches,
A'anna
I can hang out with you anytime

Mike,
you know I love you
to death! I can't believe you only turned you
for a couple of years!
I'll always like it. I've been best friends for a long time! (I wish we had more than just the
two years!) I'll always love you and party
together every year! OK?
I'll have to come
and a weekend with you at U.T. OK?!

Our, more or less, happy family.

Editor-in-Chief, Donya Davis, seriously faces another deadline.

"You want to take my picture?" photographer Sonya Medina asks.

"You finally sold an ad?" Mrs. Berwald, Business Adviser, asks eagerly.

Editorial Adviser, Glenna Newkirk, works on the Legacy yearbook trying to meet the final deadline. (The old bat's at it again!)

Bob Gharis and Darla Herd caught in the act. (Young love, true love...)

Our thanks to those people who helped us and were so understanding:

Mr. Chumley who pretended not to see many things, Liz Driver, Marty White, and Joyce Pennington for not noticing that Donya was absent for weeks at a time,
 Betty Lowrance for writing the certificates and for being Ms.
 Newkirk's listener, and Sheila Greebon for taking our splendid staff picture. It's not just that you're a good photographer, it's that we all look so terrific.

Special thanks go to:

Mrs. Stosberg's Typing II classes,
 Marty White, Kim Stinson, Rebecca Ashley, Miss Burris
 and the Student Council for the Presentation, and Andy Coleman, you're no longer Lakeview's answer to Johnny Carson, you're better!

Many thanks to members of the Sentinel Staff who helped us.

*Mike I have so enjoyed you so much this year. I keep visiting! I know you'll love it.
 Come see me!
 E. A. Davis*

As the sun sets on the 1981-82 school year, we look toward a new day dawning on a promising future. The halls seem quieter and the last days of the 1982 Senior Class approach as we say our final goodbyes to friends, faculty, and special memories of our days at Lakeview.

More importantly, though, is the quiet feeling of accomplishment. The freshmen that we once were finally approach the day when we will walk across the stage at Graduation. Our excitement mounts, along with the sadness of loss. Another emotion running rampant in our minds and hearts is fear, fear of what is to come.

We fear the mistakes made in high school, and the mistakes to be made in our future. Seniors, we must look ahead! Stand tall and proud and place mistakes behind you.

Lakeview, in this book, you hold the memories of the boys and girls who, for better or for worse, grew into the men and women we are today. Seniors, think not of projects left undone, of research papers that just didn't quite get an A; think ahead and look toward the future.

With hope in your hearts face the future and let Lakeview and the security it represents remain a loving, laughing memory of the past.

Seniors of 1982 and Lakeview Centennial High School, you've come a long way.

As I wander down empty halls and peek into empty classrooms, I realize that the time has come to bid farewell to the best of my youth.

I've spent so much time during these past four years growing and learning about life. I realize that not every experience was good and many lessons were learned "the hard way." But I would not trade one day for another attempt.

So many people, places, and events have touched my life since I first walked the halls as a Freshman four years ago. There has been so much fun and laughter and so many frowns and tears. Yet, all have been worthwhile; the fun and laughter for those happy times to remember and the frowns and tears for the worries and hurts that have helped to mold my character.

I feel that I am leaving behind so many things incompleated and so many thank you's that I just never got around to saying.

To all of Lakeview, this is my way of thanking you. In this book, I hope you find all the fond memories and I hope you learn to appreciate, just as I did, all that life has to offer. This is my thank you to friends, loves, faculty, staff, and administrators... to everyone.

As you turn each page, may you remember a smile, a look, a laugh. For the Freshmen... may you gain knowledge in both your studies and in life, both are so important. For the Sophomores... may your Junior year as "upperclassmen" help to prepare you for the time of your senior year... may you have happy memories, as I do, and I hope that your Senior year is as good as you hope for. And for the Seniors of 1982... as you walk through those front doors for the last time forget any bitterness that you may have experienced, and may your future hold happiness and success.

I'd also like to thank my teachers, members of the staff, and all the principals for all the help and for being my friends.

God Bless You All,
Donya C. Davis

Mike, (Stud)

I know this will probably sound like what everyone writes - but I mean it. I'm so glad we'll become so close this year. It's sad to think you'll be leaving so soon. You're really a blast to be with - Ips, we always have a total blast together - I swear I love you so much - please come back and see me! You'll have to spend the night with me again and we'll have a hucky party - you always make me smile (I love that) I love you always,
